

RAYS OF DAYLIGHT REVEAL TERRIFYING SIGHT ON FRENCH BATTLEFIELD

Paris, March 8.—The manner in which a furious German attack at Notre Dame de Lorette was transformed into a defeat in which three thousand Germans fell, is described in the Petit Parisien by one of the combatants. "The Germans blew in by mines our first line of trenches," says the story. "Before the echoes of the explosion had died away an avalanche of Germans poured down and forced the French into the second line of trenches after a heroic hand-to-hand struggle. The Germans suddenly raked the trenches with two machine guns, forcing the defenders into the third line from which they were forced to retire on an easily defensible position in the rear after another bayonet battle with superior numbers. Our men spent the night preparing to win back the lost position which the Germans strengthened with sand bags. Our artillery was placed in position ready to fire. As soon as dawn broke the three-inchers opened with salvos. The shells burst in our old trenches, peppering the Germans methodically. Then the heavy artillery joined in demoralizing them. Their artillery tried to reply and its shells exploded with awe-inspiring noise, but did no harm. The din became appalling. Our pieces fired as rapidly as they could be loaded. After (Continued On Page 6)

H. S. GRIMES IS CALLED TO HIS ETERNAL HOME

FINAL SUMMONS CAME WITH THE DAWN SUNDAY

Cities, like families, are called upon every so often to mourn the loss of a loved one, and it was such a time early Sunday morning when the city of Portsmouth was plunged into sorrow over the loss of one of its foremost citizens, Harry S. Grimes, who gave up the unequal struggle with death about 6:30 o'clock. His death came after a long siege of sickness, the nature of which baffled physicians and specialists for the past three years. It first made its appearance three years ago, when he accompanied his family on a pleasure trip to California. He was taken ill aboard the train and was in physical discomfort throughout the entire visit. Returning home, he began a constant fight against the ravages of the disease which finally robbed Portsmouth of its most cheerful optimist and most consistent booster. One year ago last December, he went to French Lick Springs, Ind., for a stay at that resort. The day after his return home in January following, he suffered a collapse at his home, which was the forerunner of the end. From that time on, he gradually declined in health until the end came, peacefully and serenely, without pain. MEDICAL SKILL WAS UNAVAILING Specialists all over the country endeavored in vain to locate the origin of the disease that was gradually sapping his vitality and grieving his family and friends. He was a patient at the Mt. Carmel Hospital at Columbus, the Johns Hopkins Hospital at Baltimore, and the Christ Hospital at Cincinnati, during the past year, where some of the most renowned specialists of the country treated his case. One thing unusual about his affliction was that at no time during his entire illness did he suffer any pain. His case presented symptoms of various diseases, but none of the specialists was able to agree upon the real trouble, which was unknown to the very end. Owing to the baffling nature of the disease and with the hope that physicians might be able to treat similar cases with better results in the future, Mr. Grimes insisted that after his death, a post-mortem examination should be held. His wishes were respected in that regard, and the post-mortem was conducted by Drs. Harry A. Schirrmann, William D. Schaefer, S. S. Halderman and R. O. LeBaron. (Continued On Page 6)

H. S. GRIMES

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon, March 9, at half past one o'clock, from All Saints Episcopal church, corner of Fourth and Court streets. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. Ainger Powell, rector of the church. The services are held at 1:30 for the convenience of out-of-town friends who desire to catch trains out of the city Tuesday evening. Brief services will be held at the house for the family before the departure for the church. The services at the cemetery will be for the immediate family.

WASHINGTON SENDS STRONG PROTEST TO GENERAL CARRANZA; WARSHIPS ON MOVE

Washington, March 8.—New and urgent representations amounting practically to a warning have been sent by the United States to General Carranza demanding an improvement of conditions in Mexico City. Diplomats familiar with the contents of the note which Consul Sullivan has been instructed to present to General Carranza interpret it as an entire change of policy on the part of the Washington government toward the Mexican situation. LOSING PATIENCE WITH CARRANZA The communication to Carranza which was drafted after conferences between President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and Counselor Lansing was guarded by secrecy, pending some word from Carranza as to his attitude. It was said by some officials that the note contained the strongest representation that ever have been made to Carranza and indicates that the American government is rapidly losing patience with his indifference to the objectionable acts of General Obregon in Mexico City. Those who know the contents of the communication said it did not threaten force and was not in the nature of an ultimatum but pointed out in explicit language the serious consequences that might follow if the welfare of foreigners continued to be disregarded. Cruiser Tacoma Ordered To Vera Cruz Early in the day Secretary Daniels had said no additions (Continued On Page 6)

FIVE PLEAD GUILTY TO PASSPORT FRAUD

New York, March 8.—Carl Runede, the German American and four German reservists, brought to trial in the federal court here today on indictments charging them with conspiring against the United States by obtaining false American passports, unexpectedly withdrew their previous pleas of not guilty and throw themselves on the mercy of the court. All five pleaded guilty. Runede, who was accused of operating a bureau for the issuance of false passports, was sentenced to serve three years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. The others, Arthur Wilhelm, Heinrich Sachse, a reserve lieutenant in the German army, Walter Mueller, August Meyer and Herman Wegener, were let off with fines of $200 each. A sixth man, Hans Adam von Weddell, also indicted and a fugitive from justice has been apprehended in Scotland, it was announced.

BILLY BUT-IN The Times Weather Man

IT'S HARD TO GUESS MORE A WEEK AHEAD

GREAT BATTLE PENDING ALONG LEFT BANK OF VISTULA RIVER

London, March 8.—The center of interest on the east front again has shifted with the announcement from Petrograd that a great battle is developing on the left bank of the river Vistula at a point to the west, and also to the southwest of Warsaw. It is not yet clear, judging from messages reaching London, which side has taken the offensive, but several sources both in Berlin and Petrograd have been hinting lately that vital operations might well be expected in this region. Messages from the Russian capital have declared that the field of action in the direction of the Polish line could serve as the decisive ground, while Berlin has been predicting another brilliant action in the direction of Warsaw by Field (Continued On Page 6)

Thaw On Trial Will Try To Prove Sanity

New York, March 8.—Five of the twelve jurors who will decide the case of Harry K. Thaw were selected within less than three hours today. When court recessed this afternoon for luncheon indications were that the jury box might be filled by night. In selecting these jurors, both state and defense showed something of their plans. The state indicated that it would seek Thaw's conviction for conspiracy to escape from Matteawan on the ground that, although an insane man, Thaw had unimpaired capacity to conspire. The defense's questions of talesmen were construed as meaning that they would seek to show that Thaw was sane at the time he escaped, or would rely upon the prosecution to prove this for them. ANNUL TWO CENT RATE Washington, March 8.—The West Virginia two cent passenger rate law was annulled as unconstitutional today by the supreme court as to the business of the Norfolk and Western railway company. In announcing the court's decision, Justice Hughes said in part as follows: "It is clear that by the reduction in rates, the company is forced to carry passengers, if not at or below cost, with merely a nominal regard, considering the volume of the traffic affected. We find the state exceeded its powers in imposing it." COLUMBUS, March 8.—Abolition of the office of county coroner is provided in a bill which Senator Myers, of Marion, expected to introduce today. The bill provides that a medical examiner shall be substituted for the coroner and that he shall work under the direction of the county prosecutor.

ANNUL TWO CENT RATE

Washington, March 8.—The West Virginia two cent passenger rate law was annulled as unconstitutional today by the supreme court as to the business of the Norfolk and Western railway company. In announcing the court's decision, Justice Hughes said in part as follows: "It is clear that by the reduction in rates, the company is forced to carry passengers, if not at or below cost, with merely a nominal regard, considering the volume of the traffic affected. We find the state exceeded its powers in imposing it." COLUMBUS, March 8.—Abolition of the office of county coroner is provided in a bill which Senator Myers, of Marion, expected to introduce today. The bill provides that a medical examiner shall be substituted for the coroner and that he shall work under the direction of the county prosecutor.

Anarchists Enter Not Guilty Pleas

New York, March 8.—Frank Abernethy, the young anarchist arrested in St. Patrick's cathedral last Tuesday morning after detectives had stung out a fuse of a lighted bomb which imperilled the lives of 800 worshippers, pleaded not guilty today to the charge of attempting to explode the bomb. Carmine Carbone, the 18-year-old boy arrested as the maker of the missile, entered a similar plea. Both were held in $25,000 bail for trial.

HEAVY FIRING IN NORTH SEA

Amsterdam, March 8.—(Via London).—For the first time since Admiral Sir David Beatty engaged a German squadron in the North Sea the latter part of January, heavy gun fire, according to a dispatch from the Hook of Holland, to the Telegraph, was heard in the North Sea today.

WOULD ABOLISH

Columbus, March 8.—Abolition of the office of county coroner is provided in a bill which Senator Myers, of Marion, expected to introduce today. The bill provides that a medical examiner shall be substituted for the coroner and that he shall work under the direction of the county prosecutor.

PORTUGAL FACES CABINET CRISIS

Lisbon, March 8 (via Paris).—The political situation in Portugal which last week entered upon a serious epoch with the inauguration of the republic of Northern Portugal under the presidency of General Antonio Barreto, has in no sense improved by the resignation of Minister of Finance Gualhardo, which became known yesterday. As a matter of fact a further cabinet crisis now would force developments, the outcome of which would be fraught with much danger.

Th' trouble with my audience is it expects too much from a weather man. Only today a fellow asked me what kind o' weather I expect a week from next Sunday. And when I told him, I didn't know he proceeded to make disparaging remarks about weather men in general and one in particular. I'm sorry but like most mortals my vision is limited. A day ahead, however, don't bother me a bit. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Fair tonight and Tuesday; slightly colder tonight in extreme south portion. Kentucky—Colder tonight, Tuesday fair. West Virginia—Part cloudy and somewhat colder tonight, Tuesday fair.

Committee Named By Mothers Club

Three members of the Mothers' Club of the lower Fourth street school building have been named by the president, Mrs. Kline, to serve as a campaign committee in the furtherance of the candidacy of Mrs. William H. Schwartz of Sixth street as a candidate for member of the board of education. They are Mrs. William Bridges, chairman, and Mrs. S.

Coles Peebles and Mrs. Alan Jordan. The first meeting of the committee has been called for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Schwartz. At that meeting Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Schwartz, and the three members of the committee will discuss the methods to be employed in carrying on the campaign, which they assert, will be a vigorous one.

NEW BOSTON

Will Anderson was arrested by the city police, and later brought to the village jail by Marshal Will I. Davis Sunday afternoon on a charge of alleged bootlegging. Anderson has been watched by the village officials for some time. Sunday he hired a horse and buggy from liverman in Fenner and started toward the city with a jug and a number of empty bottles. Davis trailed along behind. At the Peebles shale back Anderson left the buggy and went to the hill. Davis notified the city police, and he was halted at East Portsmouth. An empty jug and eight quart bottles were found in the buggy. As he alighted from the car in front of the village mayor's office two pint bottles fell from his pockets to the ground breaking. He will be given a hearing Monday evening.

A dispute over the rent between Mrs. Alva Jenkins and Mrs. Forest Russell who occupy the Chin house on Gallia pike and Ohio avenue ended Saturday night when the husbands of the women took up the affair which ended with Russell emerging from the fray with a bad cut in his head and several cuts across his fingers. His clothes were soaked with blood when he got out a car to go to the city to have his wounds dressed. Jenkins went to Mayor Davis Sunday evening saying that Russell had a dagger in his hand when the trouble started and that in the mixup he cut himself. Mrs. Russell swore out a warrant for Jenkins charging him with cutting with intent to kill. The trial will be held Monday evening. Russell claims Jenkins did the cutting.

Millard Fultz was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness. He was released Sunday on bond.

"White Hope" Bert Riggs was taken into custody Saturday afternoon on a plain drunk charge. He was released Sunday when he promised Mayor Davis that he would leave town and never return.

Two foreigners, plain drunks, were arrested Saturday by Marshal Davis. They put up bonds Sunday for their appearance in police court Monday.

Edward McKinley was arrested Saturday night on a warrant charging him with robbery. Mrs. J. Minor swore out the warrant claiming that McKinley took her purse containing $32 while she was at the Alva Jenkins and Forest Russell home Saturday night. He was released Sunday on bond.

The Excelsior Sewing club will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will Jenkins on Gallia pike at 1:30.

James Hall of East Rhodes avenue received word several days ago that his brother, Omar Hall, is in a serious condition and that his life is but a matter of a few months. Omar is suffering with tuberculosis at the Marine Tuberculosis Reservation at Fort Stanton, New Mexico. He writes that his entire right lung is gone and that his heart has slipped over to his right side. His left lung is in a very bad condition. He has been confined to his bed for over five months.

Dr. W. G. Cheney who has been suffering with grip for several days was able to be up Monday.

John Emmert went to Columbus Sunday to see his new niece who arrived at his brother, Dr. Carl Emmert's home, several days ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wolfe, who makes her home with her daughter Mrs. Nancy Hull of East Rhodes avenue, had several sinking spells Sunday. Relatives have been summoned to her bedside. Mrs. Wolfe who is 87 years old is also seriously ill. Mrs. Wolfe is 80 years of age.

John Delabar, mail carrier, is off duty on account of a sore foot. He says he stepped on a nail that was in a board in the rear of the John Johnson home on Stanton avenue. Delabar says that the best thing a number of the residents could do would be to clean up their yards.

Earl McKinley clerk at Curn's pharmacy was off duty Sunday on account of a slight illness.

Will Fremont, who has been serving as deputy marshal for several months has resigned. Mayor Davis requested him to turn in his badge Friday. George Dever is filling the place. Frank Goble worked as extra deputy Saturday night.

Marion Nelson, steel worker has returned to the village. He left here to work in the Pittsburgh mills but later went to Cleveland where the mills closed down after he had worked 12 hours.

Garnet Elhoff, step daughter of Dr. T. H. McCann of Waverly will return home in a few days after a several days' visit with relatives and friends. She says that her parents have not fully decided whether they will move to New Boston or not. Dr. McCann said some time ago that he expected to be practicing in the village by March 1.

The Willing Workers of the Baptist church held a very interesting meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tom York on Gallia pike.

Village Clerk Tom O'Neal moved Monday from Gallia pike to the house recently occupied by Frank Cooper.

George Launder, transfer man who was injured in a fall from his wagon Friday is getting along nicely.

Rev. Frank Wolfe baptized one of the large number of converts of the recent First Christian church revival in Millbrook lake Sunday.

Contractors Watkins and Phillips resumed work on the laying of pipe Monday after being suspended for two days on account of bad weather.

Council and school board will meet in adjourned sessions Monday evening. Council will award the $2500 fire apparatus bonds. The frame school building on Ohio avenue will be sold to the highest bidder. A frame cottage in the rear of the Stanton avenue building will also be sold. The contract for the erection of the four room brick addition to the Stanton building will also be let.

Rev. G. A. Beers brought a two weeks revival at the Baptist church to a close Sunday evening when he delivered a powerful sermon on "What It Means to be a Christian." There were three converts at the close of the meeting bringing the total number of converts up to 42 in two weeks.

TRINITY BIBLE CLASS

(By P. V. D.)

The big Bible class had 157 men present Sunday morning. Prof. Finney was on deck again and gave the class an interesting account of his experiences last Sunday at Huntington, W. Va., where he taught a large mob of boys at that place. The professor said he "cut down" on them just like he does his own class here and undoubtedly jarred some of them up considerably. The lesson was "Saul Anointed King" and was full of interest from the beginning. The teacher asked the meaning of "Eben-ezer" stating that many had sang the old song "There I Raise My Ebenezer." J. J. Davidson was given the privilege of the floor but although he used to make the hills ring with the old song up in Lawrence county he was lame on the meaning of it. Mr. Samsen the best tenor singer in the class said it used to be one of his favorites but did not know what it meant. L. W. Bragdon was called into the limelight and stated it was an awful good song alright, and he had not only raised Ebenezer, but the roof, too, with it, but had forgot what it meant. M. H. Shumway of the Board of Censors was called upon and stated it meant "the stone of help" or a memorial erected in honor of the signal victory which marked a new era in their life question. Why didn't God punish Samuel for the sins of his two sons the same as he did Eli? Some answered it was through fault of Samuel and the Bible said Eli restrained them not. Sons will go wrong in spite of good parents and careful raising, but this in no way lessens the responsibility of parents in their training. The teacher here gave an interesting description of the anointing of Saul as King. The professor has the happy faculty of picturing Bible scenes as though they happened only yesterday. He said one thing stood out prominently in this lesson and had from the beginning of time and that was when God wanted big men and big work done he always selected them from the poor and lowly. He cited Moses Gideon, Christ choosing the fisherman as disciples and could have added Lincoln. What seems to be ordinary occurrences in life are fraught with great consequences. Saul went in search of his father's asses and was introduced to the Kingdom of Israel and let us all remember God is still in the world regulating and guiding the affairs of all those who serve him.

Notes

R. R. Remenschneider of Canton, O., was a visitor. He belongs to the big Sunday school which had an average attendance of 3,000 during the year of 1914.

BOARD OF THANKS

We wish to return our sincere thanks to neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Allen Spry. Also to Rev. John W. Dillon for his counseling words and Miss Staiger for her singing.

MRS. SPRY AND SON

F. Miller, Ninth and Waller Sts.
Leo Griebel, Waller St.
J. F. Amberg, Ninth and Findlay Sts.
George Matlak & Son, Chillicothe St.
Pete Kassis, Chillicothe St.
Red Cross Pharmacy, Chillicothe St.
Gus Easars, Chillicothe St.

Play House, Chillicothe St.
Jacob Hoerr, Chillicothe St.
Pure Drug Co., Chillicothe St.
Doerr Bros., Second St.
Aman's Pharmacy, Market St.
J. J. Orlett, Market St.
J. J. Brushart, Gallia St.
Smoke House, Gallia St.
C. J. Schmidt, Gallia St.

R. Schirrmann, Gallia St.
George W. Freund, Gallia St.
Chris Wagner, Ninth and Offshore Sts.
H. H. Poetker, Offshore St.
Pressler's Pharmacy, Eleventh and Offshore Sts.
Jones Pharmacy, Eleventh and Hutchins Sts.

J. W. Jordan, Eleventh and Hutchins Sts.
Montgomery & Lookhart, Gallia St.
Anderson's Pharmacy, Grant and Grandview.
Walter McCarthy, Fourteenth and Waller Sts.

A CARD

Portsmouth, O., Mar. 8, 1915.
Editor Times:
I shall be pleased to have any person who is interested in the Teachers' Institute call at my office at any time to discuss any matters pertaining to it.
The office is on the second floor of the Krieger building.
Respectfully,
E. O. McCOWEN,
County Superintendent.

Slander Alleged

Sam Gillespie, whom Police Officer Ora S. Clark charged with slandering his wife, Mrs. Vella Clark, waived the right of a preliminary hearing before the mayor Monday and was bound over to the grand jury. He furnished bond in the sum of $50. Gillespie has retained Attorney Nate Gilliland to defend him.

SERMON STIRS PEOPLE AT 4TH STREET M. E.

God's Spirit seemed to get hold of folks last evening at the Fourth Street M. E. church, while Rev. Marting preached a strong sermon, entitled, "Inflow and Outflow," using as a text John 7, 37-38: "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink. He that believeth on Me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." He said in brief: "Here is a great promise of our Savior that He surely expected to see realized in men's lives. Christ would not say anything that He did not mean. He is not a liar. He therefore confidently looks for an outflow of life-giving influence, gushing forth in mighty streams from every soul that has been touched of Him. Now there cannot be an outflow from a reservoir where there is no inflow. You can't draw more water than has been put in. If now any man called Christian life is not making itself felt mightily in the world, they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow are: First, come; drink, believe. The first is the longing for the life in Christ Jesus, a longing intense enough to be painful, if not satisfied. The second is the approach to the source of supply, which approach is the more rapid the greater the longing. Then follows the satisfying of the thirst by plentiful drinking. A thirsty man will not stand and look at the water proffered him. But you failed, to quench the thirst of your soul when the satisfying water of life is tendered you in Christ. Lastly comes that constant communion with the source of life, the believing that scientific human companionship with the Christ. Just here many fail; they die, no wonder. The life that comes in abundance from Christ must be the fountain of life? If we will but concern ourselves more about the inflow, the outflow will take care of itself. The fuller the reservoir the greater the pressure at which it will be compelled to gush forth. The conditions of inflow

BERNSTORFF SAYS TURKS TOLERANT TOWARD JEWS

Washington, March 8.—Count Bernstorff, German ambassador here, issues a statement today declaring tolerance toward all religious beliefs has been shown by the Turkish government and that the disturbances of the Jews in Palestine were caused by over-zealousness of local Turkish authorities.

The ambassador's statement follows: "Of late numerous alarming reports concerning the situation of the Jewish population of Palestine have arrived here. Several at times I have published official news to which I can add today."

"The government in Constantinople, has, since the outbreak of war, strictly adhered to its traditional tolerant attitude toward all religions and there has never been an anti-Jewish or anti-Zionist feeling in Constantinople. The political unrest, which for some time disturbed the Jewish population of Palestine, has been caused by the over-zealous attitude of local Turkish authorities."

"But luckily, they have in no place been followed by excesses which could not be entirely repaired."

"The German ambassador in Constantinople, closely co-operating with Ambassador Noyenhaus has during all this time, given much attention to the Jewish question and has urged the German consular officials in Turkey to report regularly on local events."

ROB VILLAGE POSTOFFICE
New Paris, O., March 8.—Cracksmen early today blew the safe in the local postoffice and looted it of its contents. The entire stock of stamps is missing and all of the money was taken. In their hurried departure the burglars dropped $35 in bills which was found today. There is no clue.

THREE DIE IN MINE
Oakland City, Ind., March 8.—The three outcropped men in the Ayresville coal mine near here yesterday were found dead today when the debris was cleared away.

The men were placed props in the mine when they were crushed by a fall of slate.

M'KINLEY WAS DISMISSED
Edward McKinley of New Boston, was arraigned before Mayor J. S. Davis Monday afternoon. The charge of robbery against McKinley was dismissed. Attorney Edgar Miller represented Mrs. J. Minor, who preferred the charge against McKinley, while Attorney Nate Gilliland defended McKinley. Mrs. Minor claimed McKinley stole here purse containing $32.

Legally Adopted
Upon the application of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hudeis, who have legally adopted her, the name of Celesta May Vogel was changed to Celesta May Hudeis in probate court Monday. The little girl was abandoned, it is claimed, some time ago by her father, Charles Vogel, and her mother, Dora Vogel, is deceased.

Sale Confirmed
Confirmation of the sale of the property on Washington street involved in the divorce suit of May Williams against Arthur Williams to William Gergous, city service director, was made by Judge Thomas in common pleas court Monday morning. Mr. Gergous paid $1875 for the property, which had been appraised at $1,500.

FORMER STATE SENATOR ENDS HIS PRISON TERM

Columbus, March 8.—Former State Senator Isaac E. Huffman, of Oxford, Butler county, today completed his sentence of three years in the Ohio penitentiary.

Shortly after emerging from the prison walls Mr. Huffman went to the state house where Governor Willis handed to him papers which restored the former senator to citizenship. Huffman and Governor Willis served together as members of the lower house of the Ohio legislature some ten years ago.

Huffman was convicted in connection with the legislative bribery case, along with former Senator L. R. Andrews, of Ironton, George Catone, of Dayton, Rodney J. Deigle, surgeon-at-arms of the senate and several others.

GARY PLANTS ON FULL TIME SOON

Gary, Ind., March 8.—The entire plant of the American Bridge company, which has been working at about 60 per cent capacity, will be running full force before the end of the month, said an officer of the company.

An order for 40,000 tons of structural material has just been received and a call has been sent out to all engineers and draughtsmen not already at work to report for duty.

The American Sheet and Tinplate company will also have its full crew at work by April 1, and the Indiana Steel plant will have to light another blast furnace. Gurry reports 9,000 men now working in the various steel industries.

BIG HOMESTEAD PLANT OPERATING TO CAPACITY
Pittsburgh, Pa., March 8.—Every department of the Homestead works of the Carnegie Steel company was in operation today for the first time in nearly two years, and officials declared that orders lately received for structural materials and ship armor plate assured activity at the plant for months. The open-hearth department and the plate mills were started yesterday and the structural mills today, resulting in 4,000 men being put to work.

Situation Growing Serious For Spain Tools Are Stolen

Madrid, March 8 (via Paris).—The economic situation in Spain is becoming steadily more serious notwithstanding the efforts of the government to find a solution for the difficulties which confront the country. It is feared in some quarters that conditions soon will become so bad that they may lead to a conflict fraught with grave consequences.

Pierce rioting resulted at Laszels from the increased price of bread.

Contractor C. B. Nourse, building building jobs for others rather than for himself, has joined the "Do It Now" club and is erecting a house of his own on Campbell avenue. It will be a two story house and contain six rooms.

James Mackoy, Jr., of Wheelersburg has joined the Do It Now club by having a two story frame dwelling erected on his lot in the village.

Bail Team To Give Dance
The members of the Clipper baseball club held a meeting Sunday afternoon at the home of Member McKnight, of Ninth street. As the dance by the Clippers March 9 was a decided success, it was decided that another dance should be given on March 30th.

Academy Meets
At the monthly meeting of the Homestead Academy of Medicine Monday afternoon Dr. O. W. Robe read an interesting paper, which was followed by a general discussion.

WILL ERECT AN OFFICE BUILDING

Architect Arthur Devoss has been commissioned to prepare preliminary plans for a new office building the Whitaker-Glessner company expect to build near their plant this spring. The structure will be built of brick and stone and will have one entire floor devoted to restaurant purposes.

Negro Was Bloody Sight

Harry "Huck" Johnson, a young negro, was bleeding like a stuck pig when Officer Allen found him in a dazed condition in Paradise alley Monday afternoon. As he was drinking he was locked up at the city prison pending investigation. He is said to have forced entrance to a home in the above alley and attacked a woman.

Complaint Is Made

Robert Schneider, a former N. & W. brakeman, who since meeting with an accident and suffering a breakdown in health has been stopping with relatives in Kentucky, lodged complaint with the police Monday against a local fraternity order. He said when he applied for sick benefits the lodge's secretary informed him his name could not be found on the books. Chief McCarty promised to investigate.

DR. FETTER IS MUCH BETTER

Dr. S. P. Fetter was reported much better Monday. He spent a restful day Sunday and his condition this morning was reported eminently satisfactory by his physicians. It was stated that a general improvement was noted in his condition and the should, barring further complications, soon be out of danger.

BUILDING PERMITS

Anna E. Bihlmann, new 2 story frame house at No. 1549 Seventh street, $2000, Contractor Holzmann.

All members of River City Council No. 11 United Commercial Travelers will assemble at All Saints church Tuesday afternoon at 12:45 to attend the funeral of Brother H. S. Grimes.

All members of Portsmouth Lodge No. 154 B. P. O. Elks will assemble at the All Saints church Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Past Exalted Ruler H. S. Grimes.

Special Sermon

Rev. J. H. W. McCoomer, pastor of the Findlay street M. E. church, colored, has announced that he will preach a special sermon next Sunday evening on the subject "The Doings of a Good Fellow." He is anxious to have a large attendance.

Miss Blanche Bradford, telephone operator at the Excelsior shoe factory, is a victim of grip.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG
Gray Hair Darkened So Eagerly Nobody Will Know!—No Dye.

When you build your home

you will have many things to think of, things of which you have heretofore thought vaguely, but of which you must now think definitely and closely. You will be forced to rely upon specialists in the various building trades for advice in selection and arrangement. The mason, the carpenter, the heating contractor, etc., will all be glad to help you and you will need their help, for each is a specialist in his own line and knows things about it which the average man does not know.

Above all, you will need the help of the architect, for he is the Master Specialist of home building. Years of study and years of practice have made him a specialist not only in design and construction, but in the multitude of practical details that enter into every building. He sees them as a complete whole as no other person connected with the building can. Each of the tradesmen can advise you in the problems of his own trade, but the architect can advise you in the intricate correlation of all of these—to the end you so ardently desire, the creation of an artistic home—beautiful because practical and harmonious.

The trained architect sees the home as a whole, complete and occupied. He places the furniture in his mind's eye on the plans. He foresees the effects of decoration and furnishings and plans for those effects. He foresees the necessities of housekeeping and provides for them. He can with the most modest priced materials obtain for his clients' needs a building most appropriate and with enduring charm. He knows not only what heating is best to use for your building construction and exposure—where the piping can and must go—what kind, size and shape of radiator for each room, hall, etc., but where it can best be placed to exert greatest heating efficiency with the most artistic and unobtrusive effect.

The leading feature of any home is comfort
There is one feature of a building which more than any other, all architects now, unitedly and strenuously, strive to have adopted. Every architect knows that no matter how clever the plan, no matter how harmonious or in good taste are the completed structure, trim and decorations, when the days arrive of cutting winds and sudden temperature drops there will be trouble for his client and for him if the heating outfit fails to respond. The finer the furnishings, the greater will be the contrast and emphasis on any lack of heating comfort. Every one of the million outfits of IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators now in use in both Americas, Europe, Australia and Japan is giving topmost satisfaction and the fuel savings have already repaid or are fast repaying the original cost—everyone is a paying investment, not an expense. Further, each outfit will give ideal results as long as the building endures in which it is placed!

Always consult an architect—even before you buy a lot
When you build your home, your first step—even before you buy your lot—should be to employ the trained architect, for he can help you choose the correct setting for the kind of building you want to erect, or assist you in putting heart into your home by selecting and placing your radiator heating outfit to do best work with the least amount of fuel and care-taking. Ask your architect—ask any architect who heating he would use if he were building his own home. His answer will be: "IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators are the best that money can buy, yet cost no more. They are fully guaranteed." Whether your building is a store, office, school, church, flat, farm or city house, etc., ask to-day for free book: "Ideal Heating," full of big facts you ought to know. Puts you under no obligation to buy.

Ask also for catalog of the stationary, genuine, unfailing ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaners—at $150.00.

AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY

Sold by all dealers
No exclusive agents
Public Showrooms at Chicago, New York, Boston, Providence, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Atlanta, Birmingham, New Orleans, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Bradford, Ont., London, Paris, Brussels, Berlin, Cologne, Milan, Vienna.

McCall Damage Suit To Be Heard Tuesday

Judge W. P. Stephenson of West Union will sit for the first time as judge of the common pleas court in Scioto county Tuesday, when the case of Dr. E. O. McCall against the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light company, an action for $10,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained in an accident in March, 1912, will open on common pleas court.

Goodman Company Incorporates Monday

Columbus, O., March 8.—The I. H. Goodman Company doing business in Portsmouth under the name of United Woolen Company was incorporated today with a capital stock of $10,000. The incorporators are I. H. Goodman, George Stivers, Edward Strouse and Attorneys Will J. Meyer and Arthur H. Bannan.

Mr. Goodman stated Monday that this step was taken in order that the firm could carry on its business in the future on a larger scale.

WITH THE SICK
The many friends of W. H. Smith will regret to learn that he is very ill at his home on Gallia street. For a time Sunday it was thought he was dying, but he rallied and was better today.

Franklin, six-year-old son of Mrs. Rosa Strupp, of Buena Vista, who fell Wednesday and dislocated his right elbow, is getting along nicely.

Dr. J. B. Ray, one of the most widely known residents of the county, remains in a very serious condition at his home in Harri-

Morning Star Names Ten More Witnesses In Hospital Probe

The city probe committee was on Monday furnished by the "Morning Star" with an additional list of eight or ten witnesses, who will be examined at tonight's investigation of the Dr. Lake charges.

A special officer was placed at the service of the committee, with the approval of the mayor to summon the new witnesses, and their names were not made known to any other person. Officer Roy, Meene was declared for this special duty.

Both sides again expressed confidence in the committee Monday and seemed to desire that the entire matter be sifted "to the bottom."

From what was intimated to the committee Monday, the investigation will not end with tonight's meeting and will be drawn out longer.

The committee was informed Monday that Attorney George W. Shuppard will assist Attorney Edgar Miller. Dr. Jos. Lake said Monday he had no statement to make, but said he would see to it that the supposed anatomical witnesses would appear if he had to look after that end of it himself.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 8.—Representatives of the 15,000 striking Eastern Ohio coal miners today canvassed the referendum vote taken yesterday throughout the district to determine whether the district and Ohio officials of the United Mine Workers should be permitted to negotiate with Secretary of Labor Wilson next week at Washington for a final settlement of the strike which has been in progress since last April. The resolution which authorized the referendum, was adopted at a special convention of miners from eastern Ohio here Saturday.

One hundred and twenty-five strikers were expected to return to work at the Edge Hill Colliery north of Bellaire, Ohio, following the announcement last night of Arthur J. Morgan, the owner, that he would pay the union scale of 47 cents. He is the first operator in the district to accede to the miners' demands.

TAKE REFERENDUM ON OHIO MINERS STRIKE

ADVOCATES $2.50 AS MINIMUM WAGE
Chicago, March 8.—A minimum wage of $2.50 a day for unskilled labor was advocated by Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, chairman of the United States commission on industrial relations, in an address here last night before the forum of Grace Protestant Episcopal church.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always Bears
Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams

Sent-an-el Laxative Tablets
MADE IN AMERICA
MORE THAN A MERE CATHARTIC

SMILE WITH THE MORNING SUN
Sent-an-el Laxative Tablets will simply make you feel great. Purely vegetable, candy-coated Sent-an-els do all that any other cathartic or purgative does and they'll do it on your system, for Sent-an-els are more than a mere cathartic. They do this by getting at the blood, the seat of the trouble. They'll cleanse and purify that vital fluid making it rich and red as Nature intended, to go coursing through your veins and arteries, to vitalize your nerves, to build and to develop your whole system. Your druggist sells Sent-an-els. 10 doses 10 cents. Get a box to-night.

The Portsmouth Daily Times

SUBSCRIPTION $5.00 PER YEAR

The Times Publishing Co.

CHILLICOTHE AND FRONT STREETS

VALLEE HAROLD AND HARRY E. TAYLOR, Editors.
GEORGE M. TAYLOR, Managing Editor.

Entered at Postoffice at Portsmouth, O. as Second Class Mail Matter

WHEN AWAY FROM HOME

You Can Get The Times At The Following News Stands:
CINCINNATI, OHIO: Franklin News Company, Fountain Square.
COLUMBUS, OHIO: A. T. Miller (News Agent), Union Station.
Cincinnati News Company, Gay and High Streets.
DAYTON, OHIO: Greater Dayton News Co.
CHILLICOTHE, OHIO: Peter Sohn (News Stand), Main Street

ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT

Eastern Representative: Robert Tomlin, 410 Nassau St., New York
Western Representative: Alvin & Ward, Advertising Bldg., Chicago.

A COMMUNITY'S LOSS.

When the news spread abroad Sunday morning of the death of H. S. Grimes, the immediate thought of the thousands who heard it in sadness, must have been, that with his passing, Portsmouth had lost a man whose dominant characteristic was belief in and loyalty to her. It is striking, it is worthy of our profound admiration and appreciation, that a man of such large and varied interests and activities, of such tremendous energies, should reserve, as it were, his chief enthusiasm and most tireless efforts for the advancement and development of his home town. There were times when, in his faith for the future of Portsmouth, he stood almost alone, but there never was a time after he began to assume stature in affairs, that he did not lead in her progress.

There were three reasons for this: First, because he could glimpse the future clearer; second, because he was essentially an optimist wherever the town was concerned; and third, he was a born director of men, inspiring them not only with trust in his ability but with confidence in their own powers of accomplishment.

None other was so potent as he in spreading the fame of the town abroad because none other had such wide and powerful business and social connections over almost the entire country, and none could approach, to say nothing of rival him, in the persistence and insistency with which the unfolding greatness of Portsmouth was heralded. But with him, words were preceded and succeeded by action.

He was effective in speech and impressive in deed. By his work and his money he sought to create the picture that his tongue painted. He was a prime promoter of the city's first street railway, telephone and electric light systems, was over an ardent advocate of civic betterment, standing steadfastly for vitrified paving and other permanent public improvements, in the days when it was not only most unpopular, but exceedingly uncomfortable so to do.

Foremost in the organization of the Portsmouth Board of Trade he was its head and director. In the earlier period of its existence, when such momentous work was done by it for the industrial growth of the city. In connection with the operations of this body, an incident may be recalled, illustrating the force of his leadership. Just after a sum running up into the tens of thousands had been raised by public subscription to secure a couple of plants for the city, considerable time and effort being expended thereat, announcement was made that the Norfolk and Western shops and terminals could be secured by Portsmouth if only truck facilities could be guaranteed. All gasped at the near prospect of such good fortune, joy being shaded by the seeming impossibility of meeting conditions required, for there was a general feeling of financial exhaustion over the voluntary expenditures just made. Not a bit so, however, with Harry S. Grimes. His optimism mounted higher with the far east shadow of the obstacle and alone 'way above it. He said that the biggest and best opportunity Portsmouth ever had must not be allowed to slip by. The money could and must be raised. Such was the all-pervading contagion of his enthusiasm that citizens actually came to vie with each other in haste at giving, and the necessary subscriptions were obtained so quickly and easily as to make any doubt about ability to raise the money seem ridiculous.

In bringing the industrial and business interests together, and in making them touch elbows in joint fellowship, he was superb, and to him more than any one else is due the reputation for hospitality and just pride of place that Portsmouth enjoys, and has so well earned the title of "Peerless."

But it is of the citizen we have been thinking. Let us turn in fond remembrance to the man. Harry S. Grimes had his faults and his shortcomings—bless him for that—but in comparison with his virtues and his deserts, they were as nothing. The road he traveled upward was hard and rough and sometimes there appeared in him an abruptness that belied the bigness of his mind and the kindness of his heart. But the real measure of men is to be taken in their intercourse with their family and friends, not in contact with those to whom conditions and circumstances force them in opposition. To judge justly of the nobility of the character of Harry S. Grimes, one had to be admitted to the intimacy of his home and friendship. His regard and his consideration for his loved ones, was as the sunshine that warms and the dew that freshens. His solicitude and care for those in any way dependent upon him was of surpassing tenderness.

His concern for those who had the call of relationship upon him had not alone depth of sympathy, but the response of generous assistance. His loyalty to friend in distress was such that he would make their cause his own, and then dismiss the matter as if it were but a mere casual and an ordinary act. He gave away that which most men would esteem a fortune to help others on their feet, and though often knowing it was absolutely vain of result, he expressed no regret. In his later years he was exceptionally successful in his business affairs, but for him money in itself had no charms. It was worth while only for the good things it might bring to add to the joy and helpfulness of living, and in this enjoyment he wanted all his friends to share. He never was happier than in going out of his way to add to the pleasure of some one else.

STILL ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT?

To one who has known him long and well, who was drawn particularly close to him when the shadows began to gather thick and fast, who has seen his eyes moisten quickly at a little story of distress, who has felt the warm glow of his sympathy, has realized his exquisite gentleness towards loved ones, hard comes the task of exalting tribute to him, but harder still to understand why the blow should fall just as the zenith of a splendid career is attained.

A TIP THAT SAVES MONEY.

(Akron Beacon Journal)

The value of a newspaper lies in its ability to be of service, which it does not only in the matter of setting forth the news but in giving information on where things may be purchased most advantageously and in thousands of other ways. Some of the smallest items are often of great value. One published recently attracted the attention of a plumber. It was that those who threw coffee grounds into their sinks instead of into the garbage can, never had trouble from the drain pipes clogging up.

"I have known that to be so for years," declared the plumber, "but it never occurred to me that it was news. There is something in the roughness of the particles of coffee which carries away the accumulations of grease in the pipes. If the fall is sufficient and the coffee grounds are thrown in sparingly, the effect is beneficial. Perhaps the best way is to throw the grounds into one of the garbage receptacles in the sink. There will be enough left to run through the pipes to keep them clean."

WHO'S AT WAR?

(Boston Globe)

A young British officer in charge of a remote station in South Africa, received from his superior officer at the base this message: "War has been declared. Arrest all enemy aliens in your district." Promptly the superior officer received this reply: "Have arrested seven Germans, four Russians, two Frenchmen, five Italians, two Rumanians and an American. Please say who we're at war with."

And it looks as though Turkey would be the goat of the European war. The old bird will be lucky to come out of the fray with its head making connection with its body.

A Romance of Pronouns

It was evening, it was moonlight, it was late and it was fair; I was courting, I was happy, I was brave, for she was there. She was pretty, she was blushing, she was willing to be wed; He arrived, he objected, he was papa, so I fled.

I returned, he was repentant, she was coaxing her mamma; He relented, I thanked him, I forgave him—dear papa! Then he blessed us, I was happy, she blushed a rosy red; He was willing, she was willing, I was willing, we were wed. —High School News.

Tongue Twister

Hobbs meets Snobbs and Nobbs; Hobbs hobs to Snobbs and Nobbs; Hobbs hods with Snobbs and nobbs Nobbs' job. "That is," says Nobbs, "the worse for Hobbs' job," and Snobbs' sobbs.

They Misunderstood

A couple of New England spinsters were seen returning from a drive, in a light shower, with an umbrella held carefully over the dashboard, because the lively man had told them to be careful not to let the rain get under the horse's tail.—Ex.

Autos Get Cheaper Every Day

Mrs. Leonhardt has bought a new car for a jitney.—Akron Exchange.

"Tipperary" Up-to-Date

It's been a long way to woman suffrage, It's been a long way to go; It's been a long way to woman suffrage, But just see how we grow.

So it's good-bye, voteless women, Farewell, O antis, dear;

WARM WORDS IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Every once in awhile we run across some editorial fellow who loses his temper and cuts loose with the idea of seeing how many mean things he can say about the object of his wrath. As a rule such utterances are along the same lines, but occasionally one stands out for picturesque and interesting massing, together of contemporary words. Such is the case with an appended editorial utterance that appeared in Friday's issue of the Parkersburg State Journal, the editor of which poured out the vials of his wrath upon the Charleston, W. Va., Gazette and the Democratic party in general. We reproduce the explosion as a sample of vitriolic journalism. Here it is:

"Anything in the Republican Legislature of West Virginia, which does not suit the hidebound Democratic and demagogic sheet, known as the Charleston Gazette, is reactionary. Of course all the reason the people of the State elect Republicans to office, is so they can follow the advice of Bourbon politicians with their breaths soaked with rotgut whisky, such as visit Castlesburg and deal in stuff in ninety cent suit cases, and to be guided by apple butter sheets whose brains are brought around in tin cups.

"If any Legislature would follow the advice of the Charleston Gazette we would want to see it go off and clean itself in a swill barrel and polish up its conscience with a steel rasp.

The Democratic party is so reactionary that it is not fit for anything but for paying roads that lead to the northeast corner of nowhere, and for digging traps for last year's bear-tracks and for mining birds nests that are a century old, and the Charleston Gazette in its expiring when it goes out to dig fishworms where there are no worms.

"If we owned Doc Cook and the Charleston Gazette we would rent out Cook as an expounder of the truth and have the Gazette do our lying."

We have received a card from "One Who is Thirsty" in which he anxiously inquires as to when the next dance will be given in a local hall. From which we would judge that the noising about of the news of those souvenirs is exciting anxious comment in certain quarters.

The promotions of Colonel Goethals and Col. Gorgas by special act of congress was worthy recognition of their great feat in building the Panama canal and in making it sanitary. Even greater honors would fail to adequately meet the situation.

The Sphinx hasn't anything on County Superintendent of Schools McCowen when it comes to talking about why and wherefore the teachers' institute was abolished.

One of the crosses that a neutral has to bear is to be accused by both sides of favoring the other fellow.

Oh, well, if Edwin Jones, is persona non grata at the governor's office, his trusty headman, Doc Hoy haunts the chambers with a persistency that seems almost born of certainty of possession.

Animal Jingles

THE ILLNESS OF CHAUNCEY CAT

Young Chauncey Cat was poorly, said he, "I think I will send 'round for good old Doctor Rat, because I am so ill. I have so many symptoms, they are alarming quite; I fear if I keep this way I'll lose my appetite."

Now Chauncey Cat was very fond of having things to eat, and one thing that he cared for most was delicate mouse meat. His mother often said to him, "My son, you ought to diet. It would be better for your health; I really wish you'd try it."

But Chauncey Cat said, "Fiddlesticks! I'm feeling very well." Until one day quite suddenly he had this poorly spell. And so when Doctor Rat came in he gravely shook his head. Then said to Chauncey, "You will have to spend a week in bed."

"I find on looking at your tongue it's coated quite a bit, I really think you're threatened with acetabularitis. You must be careful what you eat for quite a while," said he. "In fact, you mustn't have a thing except some catnip tea."

Said Chauncey Cat, "Ridiculous! I'll have to have some meat." "Oh, no!" said Dr. Rat, "that is the worst thing you could eat." That angered Chauncey and he said, "I know that isn't true. And just to prove that you are wrong I'm going to eat you."

Before old Doctor Rat had time to think or to turn pale, Young Chauncey Cat devoured him from his whiskers to his tail. I wish that I might stop right in the middle of this verse; What's gone before is bad enough; what follows is yet worse.

That night in Chauncey's neighborhood they heard a dreadful sound. And the next morning Chauncey Cat was nowhere to be found. And no one's ever heard of him since that eventful night. From which I'd say it's better to control one's appetite.

Copyright 1915 by The Central Press Association.

It's been a long way to woman suffrage, But it is almost here.

The Cat and the Kettle

An angry mother had her little son by the hand and held a menacing cane.

"I'll teach you to tie a kettle to the cat's tail!" she said.

"It wasn't our cat," said the boy.

"No, it wasn't, but it was our kettle," said the mother.—Ex.

Good Description

"Describe the missing cash," said the great detective. He had deducted everything to be deducted by the clues in hand.

"He is 6 feet, 8 inches high and $6,000 short," replied the bank president, who was an eminently practical man.

Some Cleaners

"Damn dry cleaners and pressers,"—Ad in Cleveland newspaper.

A Prayer

A wise old owl lived in an oak, The more he saw, the less he spoke;

The less he spoke, the more he heard; Lord, make me like this wise old bird.

—Allen P. DeLong.

Unique Announcement

This story is being told at the Boston Woman's City Club:

A young wife, wishing to announce the birth of her first child to a friend in a distant city, sent the telegram, "Isaiah ix. 6," which is a Scriptural verse beginning, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Her friend, more literal and less familiar with the Scriptures, read the message and said to her husband:

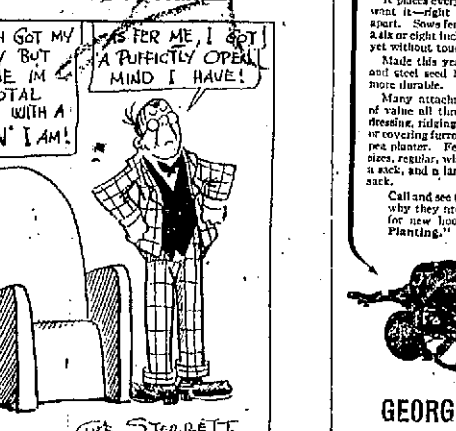

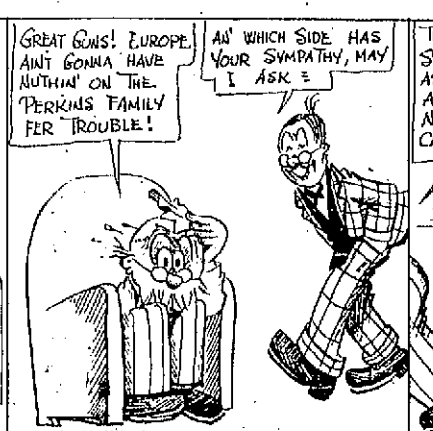

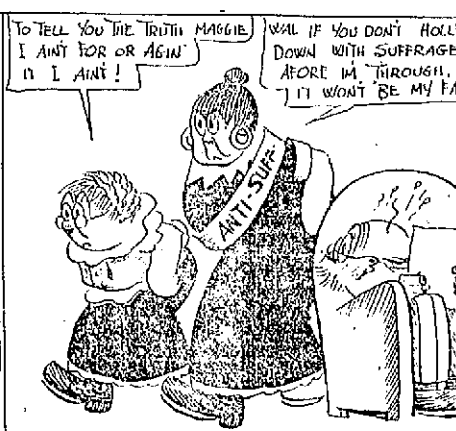

"Margaret evidently has a boy, but why on earth did they name him Isaiah? He must be healthy, though, quonco."—Boston Post.

Bought Cattle

Chas. Dutil, prominent merchant of Wheelersburg, purchased 53 head of cattle, average weight of which was 1300 pounds each, in Lawrence county, Friday. He drove the herd in to Wheelersburg, Saturday morning, and expects to butcher some for his own use and the balance he will dispose of to Portsmouth butchers.

Ceilers pumped out 10 cents per hour. Walters Plumbing Co. adv.

POLLY AND HER PALS

SAFETY COMPELS ASHUR AND PA TO AGREE

PERFECT POTATO PLANTING

Every skilled hill is a loss—no fertilizer, labor and land—and every double a waste of expensive seed and marketable potatoes. It means $10 to $20 an acre extra profit from the average field if all those hills are planted. It is this much that more than pays for the

IRON AGE 100% POTATO PLANTER

It plants every seed once just where you want it—right deep and right shallow. Sows fertilizer at the same time. In a six or eight inch stream across the furrow, without touching the seed. Made this year with a new design and steel seed box—lighter, stronger and more durable.

Many attachments making this machine of value all through the season—for discing, ridging, making up rows, opening or covering furrows and as corn, bean and pea planter. Fertilizer distributors in two sizes, regular, which holds a life over land a sack, and a large one that holds a two sack.

Call and see these machines, find out why they are so good and right—for all new lookers! 100% Potato Planting.

With Regular Fertilizer Distributor

GEORGE A. BELL
WHEELERSBURG, O.

YOU WILL GAIN BY SO DOING

If your eyes are imperfect—no matter how slight the defect—it is better to have them corrected than to take proper measures for the preservation of your sight.

You may be able to see fairly well now—but it is important that you should be able to see equally well, say, two or three years hence.

If you wish to insure future good vision, it is necessary to care for your eyes now to eliminate present difficulties and to remove injurious strain which may exist.

The real danger lies in the fact that the slight eye deterioration so gradually that you may never notice anything amiss until the seeing-powers are seriously affected.

So Call for Consultation

No charge for examination.

J. F. Carr

Jeweler Optician

424 Chillicothe near Gallia

MASONIC NOTICE

Mr. Vernon Chapter No. 23 will meet Monday, March 8 at 7 o'clock. Regular meeting.

WANTED

AGENTS WANTED:—The oldest and largest old line Ohio life company issuing health and commercial accident policies wants agents in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Georgia and Virginia, qualified to earn from $2000 to $3000 per annum; industrial policies $1 per month; commercial accident policies $5 per thousand; issues life and monthly life policies also; money to loan on real estate. Address, with references, The Columbia Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, or A. S. Conrad, General Agent, Sixth and Market Sts., Portsmouth, O.

NOTICE—For prompt package delivery, call George Abrams, A 1025.

NOTICE—Painting, paper hanging, wall paper cleaning. Al Reiniger, 1815 6th. Phone 1267.

WANTED—Boarders at 1224 9th. Phone 618 B.

WANTED—To exchange good new gold filled, 16-size Crescent hunting case for good open case same size. See at Mrs. Wendelken's jewelry store, 681 1/2, near Gay.

WANTED—A man to look after Western lands. Call at the mayor's office, between 7 and 9 p. m.

NOTICE—Our Removal Sale Still Going On. Now is the time to buy your sewing machine and do your sewing before winter weather comes. We have them at all prices and every sewing machine guaranteed to give satisfaction. Singer Sewing Machine Co., 322 Chillicothe St.

WANTED—Lady agents can make from $2 to $5 per day. Mail name and address to 1993 Jackson St.

WANTED—Painting and paper hanging to C. T. Dawson, 313 Office St.

WANTED—2 boarders, gentlemen preferred. Rates moderate. 533 1st.

WANTED—(Girl) for general housework in family of three adults. Mrs. Chas. Losh, 723 Court.

WANTED—A chance to inform ambitious young men of special offer. Address Portsmouth Business College.

WANTED—Young men at Portsmouth Business College, special offer to those who are interested. Address Portsmouth Business College.

WANTED—6 or 7 room house with bath, centrally located by April 1st. Phone 1513 B or 1803 Hutchins.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—7 h. p. Yale motor-cycle, good condition. Sell cheap. Call any evening. 1620 9th.

FOR SALE—4 room cottage, pantry, two porches, cellar, water, gas, good barn. lot $2 by 120. Will sell at a bargain. Inquire 2014 18th St.

FOR SALE—Upright piano. 2703 Gallia.

JOE LOVINER

PRACTICAL PLUMBING AND HEATING

1641 FIFTH STREET

PHONE 420

P. E. ROUSH

Painter and Paper Hanger

UNION WORKMEN

Phone X 1144.

FOR RENT

WILL S. SELLARDS

Phone X 824

Masonic Temple

While There Is Yet Time!

Let us write a life insurance policy to protect that loving wife and those dear little ones. Have you protected them? If you should be called away! Do not see us at once—strong company—low rates—big benefits—best protection. All kinds of policies.

THE HAZLEBECK CO.

810 Gallia. Phone 70

FOR RENT

WILL S. SELLARDS

Phone X 824

Masonic Temple

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—7 h. p. Yale motor-cycle, good condition. Sell cheap. Call any evening. 1620 9th.

FOR SALE—4 room cottage, pantry, two porches, cellar, water, gas, good barn. lot $2 by 120. Will sell at a bargain. Inquire 2014 18th St.

FOR SALE—Upright piano. 2703 Gallia.

JOE LOVINER

PRACTICAL PLUMBING AND HEATING

1641 FIFTH STREET

PHONE 420

P. E. ROUSH

Painter and Paper Hanger

UNION WORKMEN

Phone X 1144.

FOR RENT

WILL S. SELLARDS

Phone X 824

Masonic Temple

TONIGHT

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN
and BEVERLY BAYNE
In "Thirteen Down"
LILLIAN WALKER
in "BREAKING IN"

TOMORROW

PARAMOUNT DAY

Daniel Frohman presents the beautiful, fascinating star
FLORENCE REED
in "THE DANCING GIRL"
Five Parts
Admission 10 cents. Davison's Orchestra

TOMORROW

SHOWS START
1:30
3:00
4:30
6:30
8:00
9:30

COMING WEDNESDAY

A thrilling European war production
"IN THE NAME OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE"
Four Reels of gripping interest
A wonderful picture of the Franco-German war

Program

3 Reels High
Class Pictures

To-Night

"Runaway June"--2 Reels
Brass Buttons--Or Clothes Make The Man

TUESDAY

Zudora in The $20,000,000 Mystery.
The Fatal Bumping, a Keystone Comedy

Long Meadow Realty Company

JACKSON CROPPER, Pres. and General Manager
Eleventh and Waller Sts.
J. E. JORDAN, General
Sales Agent.
1302 Lincoln St. Phone X 907

SPECIAL SERVICES

A series of four special Lenten services will be held at the First Presbyterian church on the remaining Wednesday evenings, until Easter.

This week, Wednesday, Rev. W. H. Christian of Georgetown, formerly pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will preach. The pastor will have charge of the opening exercises.

Other speakers will be Rev. John S. Dapp of Manchester, March 17, and Rev. Edwin Townsend of Ironton, March 24. The pastor will preach on March 31.

DEVER FILES ANSWER TO SUIT

Part responsibility for an accident, November 13, 1914, in which Lizzie Cottle was injured, is lodged with the victim in the answer filed in common pleas court Monday of Ray Dever, Harrisonville pike, owner of the automobile in the accident and defendant in a $5000 damage action taken recently by Miss Cottle. Attorneys John C. Miller and Noah J. Dever.

Dever claims that Miss Cottle, sitting beside him on the seat, touched the switch which regulated the lights on the machine with her foot in some manner, causing the lights to go out. That, Dever claims, caused him to lose control of the car.

Dever also denies the allegation of the plaintiff that he is engaged as a common carrier, although he admits having entered into a contract with William Cottle to drive him from New Boston to Ironton and return.

FOR SALE—5 room two story house, bath, cabinet mantel, porches, lot 35 ft. front frontage on 12th. Back end of lot on Ridgeway, second house, Sunday.

MEN WIN

The men and boys of the First Baptist Sunday school won the attendance race yesterday by 5 points, they having 157 present against 152 women and girls.

The men's class alone had 63 present. This is the third Sunday that the 60 mark has been passed by this class.

TERMINALS

Matthew Bush, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the Columbus district, was in the city Monday, arriving on an early train from Columbus. He left Monday for Roanoke on business. J. W. Foley, chairman of the Cincinnati district of the B. of L. E., who lives in this city, accompanied Mr. Bush to Roanoke.

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Like's Life In Army

That life in the U. S. army is quite agreeable to him is the word received from George Elmier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Elmier, 1202 Chillicothe street.

Compliments Auditor

City Auditor George Gableman is in receipt of a letter from Jos. T. Tracy of the state bureau of inspection and public accounting, acknowledging receipt of his 1914 report. Mr. Tracy highly commends Mr. Gableman for the manner in which the information is displayed for the benefit of the taxpayers of the city.

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Back Home

Fred Prediger, who has been managing a big bowling alley at Bluefield, West Virginia, has resigned his place and returned to his home in this city. Sunday.

GOOD MAN FOR PLACE

Hugh Robertson, of Cincinnati, one of the most experienced merchant tailors in the country, has accepted the position of assistant superintendent of the Crown Tailors, who made their initial bow to the public of Portsmouth Saturday, at their beautiful quarters in the Play House building. Mr. Robertson will pay particular attention to the manufacturing and promises that every garment will not only be expertly made, but turned out according to fashion's latest decree. He is a man of pleasing personality, and that he is big enough for the position is shown by the fact that he held a similar position with one of the largest tailoring concerns in Cincinnati.

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

WILL MUFF THE PRIMER

"Satisfied customers" my motto. New line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

FOR SALE—Two 3-room cottages, Lak. The first chorus rehearsal for the side, $1000.

Whoooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of "Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c

DON'T MISS THE LYRIC
HIGH CLASS PICTURES

TONIGHT
FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN
and BEVERLY BAYNE
In "Thirteen Down"
LILLIAN WALKER
in "BREAKING IN"

TOMORROW
FLORENCE REED
Five Parts
Admission 10 cents.

PARAMOUNT DAY

Daniel Frohman presents the beautiful, fascinating story
IN HENRY ARTHUR JONES'
INTERNATIONAL DRAMATIC SUCCESS
"THE DANCING GIRL"
Davison's Orchestra
Admission 10 cents.

TOMORROW
SHOWS START
1:30
3:00
4:30
6:30
8:00
9:30

COMING WEDNESDAY
A thrilling European war production
"IN THE NAME OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE"
Four Reels of gripping interest
A wonderful picture of the Franco-German war.

Exhibit Program

3 Reels High
Class Pictures
Special Orchestra

5c

To-Night "Runaway June" -- 2 Reels
Brass Buttons -- Or Clothes Make The Man

TUESDAY

Zudora in The $20,000,000 Mystery.
The Fatal Bumping, a Keystone Comedy

SOCIETY

The K. K. K. held a delightful meeting Saturday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Anderson, on Rose Ridge, where there were present Misses Mildred McAfee, Edna Korth, Florence Danliker, Louise Gibbs, Mildred Purdum, Margaret Quinn, Alta Marsh, Auditor Nourse, Genevieve Dupre and Miss Anna Tracy. The pleasures were followed by excellent refreshments. Miss Anna Tracy was a new member added to the list. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Genevieve Dupre.

Mrs. Maurine Strayer, who recently underwent a slight operation, is getting along nicely at her home on New Sixth street.

Mrs. A. E. Everard, who has been ill for the past five weeks, is able to go up and about the house and will leave Thursday for Sagertown, Pa. to spend a month.

Seven dollars and seventy cents was the amount realized Saturday afternoon on the Bigelow Woman's Home Missionary bazaar held at Priehard's. The committee for the next Saturday sale will be from the Hilltop division. Mrs. James W. Dannon, Jr., Mrs. E. O. McCoy and Mrs. W. B. Altman will have charge.

The Junior League of the Scioto-ville Methodist church realized $15.22 at a bazaar held last Saturday at Taylor's store in Scioto-ville.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bourne, of High street, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

The Whatsoever Guild of All Saints church will meet this evening at the home of Miss Virginia Dawson, on Third street.

Resinol
heals babies' skin troubles
Babies with eczema, teething rash, chafing, and other tormenting skin troubles find Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. They soothe and heal the irritated skin, stop all itching, and let the little sufferers sleep. Babies bathed regularly with Resinol Soap seldom have skin eruptions.
Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap have been used by physicians and nurses for many years to relieve children who could not be comforted by any other remedy.

Arcana Theatre-TONIGHT 5c
Mary Fuller in "MY LADY HIGH AND MIGHTY" 2 reels
"WIDEN HIS LORDSHIP PROPOSAL", comedy

Miss Margaret McCaffrey, left this morning for a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Baird, of Grandview Heights, a suburb of Columbus.

The Misses Ross and Winifred Walsh, of Otway, are the guests of Miss Neddie Donahoe, of Third street.

Mrs. Sam Williams and her sister, Miss Margaret Lampton, city, went to Ashland, Ky., Monday, for a brief visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bierley have returned to Carls, Ky., after a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bierley, of Hutchins street.

Charles Fry and daughter, Angeline, who were in the city for several days visiting local relatives started for their home in Ridgeport, Mo., Sunday.

The first chorus rehearsal for the cantata to be given early in the spring by the Young People's society of the German Evangelical church will be held tonight (Monday) in the Sunday school room on Fifth street.

Mrs. E. P. Saively, who has been visiting her brother, Prof. H. J. Fisher and family, returned to Columbus Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Reed, of 2217 Seventh street, are the proud parents of an eight pound son born last Wednesday evening at their home. This makes two sons and a daughter at the Reed home. The youngest child is seven years of age.

Mr. E. W. Riffe, of the West Virginia Plumbing Company, of Huntington, W. Va., his son Clifford and sister, Mrs. Elmer Lavinelle, of Mount Olive, Ky., of the J. H. Linnville Co., spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. J. A. Cooper, of New Eighth street.

A "hockey social" will be given on the evening of March 17th in Brady's hall, for the benefit of the L. A. to O. R. C.

Miss Heas, of Charleston, W. Va., is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Mendel, of Hutchins street.

The members of Mrs. Carrie Batey's class of Bigelow Methodist Sunday school are requested to meet in the primary room Tuesday evening, at 8:45, to attend the church services in a body.

Bartenders Hold Meeting
The cards mailed out a few days ago warning members that failure to attend meant a fine for the offender, had the effect of producing a record-breaking crowd at the Bartenders' Union meeting Sunday.

Mrs. Frank K. Young, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Hewitt, of Mount street, returned to Columbus Monday. Mr. Young is auditor of the Scioto Valley Traction Company.

Mrs. M. A. Barrows has returned from Huntington W. V., where she was called by the serious illness of a sister-in-law.

Others pumped out 10 cents per hour. Waters Plumbing Co. adv

SPECIAL SERVICES

A series of four special-Lenten services will be held at the First Presbyterian church on the remaining Wednesday evenings, until Easter.

This week, Wednesday, Rev. W. H. Christian of Georgetown, formerly pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will preach. The pastor will have charge of the opening exercises.

Other speakers will be Rev. John S. Dupp of Manchester, March 17, and Rev. Edwin Townsend of Ironton, March 24. The pastor will preach on March 31.

MEN WIN

The men and boys of the First Baptist Sunday school won the attendance race yesterday by 5 points, they having 157 present against 152 women and girls.

The men's class alone had 63 present. This is the third Sunday that the 60 mark has been passed by this class.

F. PREDIGER BACK HOME

Fred Prediger, who has been managing a big bowling alley at Bluefield, West Virginia, has resigned his place and returned to his home in this city, Sunday. Fred is in tip-top shape and is anxiously awaiting the chance to roll at the A. B. C. on Peoria. He is a member of the local team that will roll there and is sanguine that the aggregation will bring home a big bunch of coins. He declares that he will not roll under 600 in any of his events, in which case he will not have to worry about the future for many moons to come. He was looked upon as a professional at Bluefield and was buried from the league on that account.

Whooping Cough

Well, everyone knows the effect of Pine Forest on Coughs. Dr. Hill's Pine-Tree Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for all Coughs and Colds. 25c at your druggist.

Poolroom At Peebles

John T. White, proprietor of White's restaurant on Chillicothe street, will open a pool-room in Peebles, Adams county, within the next ten days.

CASTOR OIL
Can Now Be Taken Easily. In Fact, Many Can DRINK IT OUT OF THE BOTTLE
Provided It Is This Kind. Now Only 15c A BOTTLE
Flood & Blake and Wampler Brothers and leading druggists

Likes Life In Army

That life in the U. S. army is quite agreeable to him is the word received from George Blumeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Blumeier, 1202 Chillicothe street. George, who is now stationed at Eagle Pass, Tex., writes that he is getting along famously and that he has been promoted to the position of head baker in his regiment. He states that things are in quite a turmoil in that section of the country, owing to the civil war now raging in Mexico. He states that it is no uncommon sight to witness artillery engagements just across the border, and that many a stray bullet has dropped on American soil. He adds that the discipline in the U. S. army is of the very best and that he is not at all sorry that he enlisted. He is saving his money, growing fat and expects to return to Portsmouth with his pockets weighted down with the coin of the realm when he receives a furlough the coming summer. Young Blumeier is a bright chap and a most companionable fellow. He worked at a local printing office previous to enlisting, but until then had followed the trade of a baker, learning the business under his father, who is one of the most experienced in the city.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

A marriage license was issued late Saturday afternoon to Stanton Coupler, 21, a local brickworker, and Miss Dora Phillips, also of this city. The bride and bridegroom formerly lived in Olive Hill. Rev. B. F. Craig of this city, officiated at the ceremony Saturday evening.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil
15c

DEVER FILES ANSWER TO SUIT

Part responsibility for an accident, November 13, 1914, in which Lizzie Cottle was injured, is lodged with the victim in the answer filed in common pleas court Monday of Ray Dever, Harrisonville pike, owner of the automobile in the accident and defendant in a $5000 damage action taken recently by Miss Cottle. Attorneys John C. Milner and Noah J. Dever.

Dever claims that Miss Cottle, sitting beside him on the seat, touched the switch which regulated the lights on the machine with her foot in some manner, causing the lights to go out. That Dever claims, caused him to lose control of the car.

Dever also denies the allegation of the plaintiff that he is engaged as a common carrier, although his admits having entered into a contract with William Cottle to drive him from New Boston to Ironton and return.

BOARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the sympathy and kindness shown during the illness and death of Mrs. Mund Davis, also the girls of the Irving Drow Shook Co., and others for their kindly and efficient way in which they conducted the funeral services.

Mr. George Davis, Mrs. J. H. Walker and family. adv

GOOD MAN FOR PLACE

Hugh Robertson, of Cincinnati, one of the most experienced merchant tailors in the country, has accepted the position of assistant superintendent of the Crown Tailors, who made their initial bow to the public of Portsmouth Saturday at their beautiful quarters in the Play House building. Mr. Robertson will pay particular attention to the manufacturing and promises that every garment will not only be expertly made, but turned out according to fashion's latest decree. He is a man of pleasing personality, and that he is big enough for the position is shown by the fact that he held a similar position with one of the largest tailoring concerns in Cincinnati.

Nose Bleed
J. C. Shively, a well known contractor of Rushtown, was seized with a nose bleeding Saturday and suffered considerably from loss of blood before he could reach the office of a local physician. He was reported better Sunday.

Taxicab services anywhere in the city or country. The Interstate, the old reliable. 5-16t

TERMINALS

Matthew Bush, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the Columbus district, was in the city Monday, arriving on an early train from Columbus. He left Monday for Roanoke on business. J. W. Foley, chairman of the Cincinnati district of the B. of L. E., who lives in this city, accompanied Mr. Bush to Roanoke.

A new siding has been put in by the N. & W. near Davis Station for the convenience of A. W. Barnes & company who have the contract of paving several miles of Gallia pike. The siding will be known as Emings. Carload freight only can be handled at the siding.

The bad weather Sunday did not keep down the attendance at the tabernacle Sunday school as there were 120 present against 88 of one week ago. John Henderson acted as superintendent in the absence of Rev. Osborne.

Compliments Auditor

City Auditor George Gableman is in receipt of a letter from Jos. T. Tracy of the state bureau of inspection and public accounting, acknowledging receipt of his 1914 report. Mr. Tracy highly commends Mr. Gableman for the manner in which the information is displayed for the benefit of the taxpayers of the city.

Wall Paper Selling At Cost Price
W. C. RUDDY
Paper Hanger and Painter
Phone 878 X. 224 Third St.

THE TEMPLE THEATRE
MUTUAL PROGRAMS
Four Reels Daily

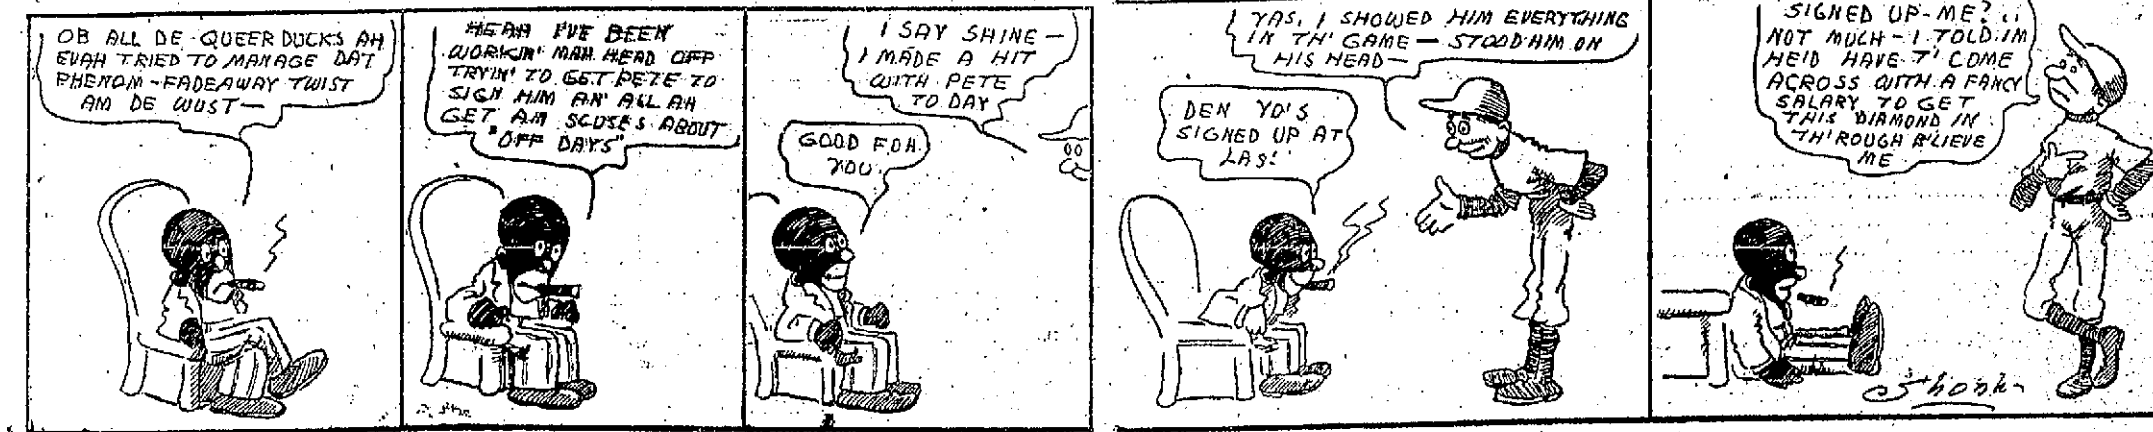

WILL RUFF THE PROMBER
"Satisfied customers" my motto. Now line of water hose just in. Hydrants of any kind. Phone 983 Y. New Boston

PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. NOW OPEN.
The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway offers very low rates. Many variable routes. For full information apply to or write
D. A. GRIMES, Agt.
Turley Bldg. Portsmouth, O.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR REMOVAL
John White, a licensee to traffic in intoxicating liquors, whose place of business is now located at 73 Chillicothe St., Portsmouth, Ohio, has filed application with this board requesting its consent to remove his place of business to 1501 Eighth St., Portsmouth, Ohio.
IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have hereunto attached our official signatures this 8th day of March, 1915.
SIXTH COUNCIL, LIQUOR LICENSING BOARD.
DAVID STAHLER, Chairman.
FRANK L. HIKER, Members.
Attest: DAVID STAHLER, Secretary.

DO IT NOW---HAVE YOUR SIDEWALK PAVED CALL ON WEATHERS & COLEGROVE
Contractors and Engineers
Room 52, Turley Building
Phone 1744.

"SHINE"

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, N. H. Office Phone 90. Residence A-400.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please give the date of the murder of Detective Baucus.

A READER.

He was murdered about ten p. m. on Sunday, December 5th.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me what gun-powder is made of.

WOMAN READER.

Gun-powder is made of an explosive mixture of saltpeter, sulphur, and charcoal, reduced to a fine powder, then granulated and dried.

Dear Dolly—As I am engaged I would like to know how long an engagement is proper?

O. A.

Long engagements are out of date. Nowadays people marry after a six months' engagement, or even shorter.

Of course I take it for granted to have kept company long enough before becoming engaged to get thoroughly acquainted with each other's habits.

Dear Dolly—If a girl attends a union meeting and at the end, a boy offers to walk home with her or asks the privilege, is this proper, even if she has others going her way?

CLEVER.

If she came with a group it would be more courteous to them if he walked along with the crowd, if it was after night.

Dear Dolly—I would like to have some of the good advice that you give others. I have been keeping company with a young man for about four months and like him very much. When he was going home from work one night he went by with another girl, on the other side of the street. He never called to me or came over. Do you think he cares very much for me? And he saw me in the store, looked in and smiled and I never smiled at him. It made me so angry, for I should think he could have spoken to me if nothing else. Should I leave him come any more? Do you think he cares more for the other girl? Does he care for me?

BLUE EYES.

That was a small thing to get cross about. Why did you not smile disinterestedly in return and pretend you never noticed the lack of interest. Some young men have a habit of doing those kind of things to see what effect it will have on the girl. They judge her regard for them by what it brings out. I would treat him friendly, but the next time he asks for a date, tell him you are awfully sorry, but you have another engagement and perhaps some other time he can come up. Don't let on that you care, if he goes with the other girl or not and he will soon act differently. I imagine that just because he made such an effort to ignore you, that he really cares very much for you.

Dear Dolly—A gentleman friend called to see me Sunday night and he tried to put his arm around me three times, but I wouldn't stand for such conduct. Don't you think he was awfully rude?

BELE.

I'll say he was rude. He must have had an extra long arm, if it would go round you three times.

Dear Dolly—Please indicate the proper pronunciation of chauffeur, cafe and suite.

IGNORANT.

The way to say chauffeur is shaw-fer. Note the correct spelling also. Toppronounce cafe, say it in two syllables as ca-fay, with first a short and last one long. Suite is pronounced sweet.

Dear Dolly—By what power is a submarine propelled?

FIGHTING DICK.

Electric batteries supply the power.

Dear Dolly—I went with a young man for quite a while and grew very tired of him. I told him that I no longer cared for his attentions. I gave him a very useful gift for Christmas and he gave me an expensive one. I asked him to return my gift to me and I returned his. It was so expensive that I did not care to keep it. He did not want to do it, as he said that gift to me would be of no use to him now and he would use the one I gave to him. Don't you think him selfish, and did I do right by returning the expensive gift?

BETTY.

I don't know, dear, but what I would have let him keep my gift, if he could use it and showed that he would like to keep it. If you were friends so long, a little matter like a gift or two should have been overlooked when you ceased to go together. However, if it makes you feel easier to have returned the gift that he gave you, it is all right and in most cases, I should say, it was the proper thing to do.

A YOUNG GIRL.

It isn't really necessary to talk about anything. A conversation is annoying to many men.

Dear Dolly—How can a fellow have lots of friends?

WILLIE.

By going about and meeting young people, making them your friends, treating them with consideration and doing everyone a good turn when you get a chance.

Dear Dolly—I am a boy going to school and I am very bright. Dolly what will keep me from blushing when I meet the girls?

ALPHONSO.

Put a little cold cream on your face, then several coats of powder and your blushes won't be noticed.

Miss Dolly Wise—I have been reading your answers to all questions in your valuable columns, especially matrimony, and I want your advice. I am a young man of good habits, 20 years old, 5 feet tall, weigh 155 pounds, dark hair and eyes and consider myself rather handsome. I have been in Portsmouth about five months and as yet have not caught myself a girl—that is one that I wish. I have my eyes on one but have not the nerve to approach her. I have a good position at the steel plant and make very good wages, and can show a friend a good time, and I would like this lady to have my eyes on to notice me. I wear a green check suit of clothes direct English cut, English walking shoes and latest hat. Please advise me what to do in your next issue.

GUERNSEY COUNTRY KID.

If you do not know of anyone that will introduce you, the only thing left for you to do is to just speak to her. She can't do any more than turn you down.

Dear Dolly—Is it proper for a girl of 18 when out walking with a boy, if he wishes her to, to put her arms around him?

LUCASVILLE LOVER.

Certainly not!

Dear Dolly—Do you or any of your readers know what is good for a rug that curls up on the sides?

SUBSCRIBER.

A quiet and enjoyable evening was spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, 1408 Robinson avenue, followed by an old-fashioned picnic.

The remainder of the evening was spent in parlor games and music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Barber and daughter Leona, Goldie Brunfield, Grace Young, Emma Young, Anna Holmes, Emma Praither, Fay McCann, Mary McLean, Leona Teagarden, Laverne Teagarden, Agnes Warren, Angeline Warren, Clara Brunfield, Messrs. Walter Fry, Russell Gayle, Dorey Beck, Pearl McGraw, Samuel Young, Russell Tilton, Clarence Russell, Jake Winkler and John Payne.

The meeting of the Highgate Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, planned for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Edna Davis, has been changed to the home of Mrs. Frank Miller, 1161 Ninth street, on account of the illness of Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Labert, of Benson's Run, were the Saturday guests of his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snyder, of Wheelersburg.

Messrs. George L. and J. Wesley Gableman visited home folks in Waverly Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Prosser, of Waverly, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prosser, of Officers street, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please give the date of the murder of Detective Baucus.

A READER.

He was murdered about ten p. m. on Sunday, December 5th.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me what gun-powder is made of.

WOMAN READER.

Gun-powder is made of an explosive mixture of saltpeter, sulphur, and charcoal, reduced to a fine powder, then granulated and dried.

Dear Dolly—As I am engaged I would like to know how long an engagement is proper?

O. A.

Long engagements are out of date. Nowadays people marry after a six months' engagement, or even shorter.

Of course I take it for granted to have kept company long enough before becoming engaged to get thoroughly acquainted with each other's habits.

Dear Dolly—If a girl attends a union meeting and at the end, a boy offers to walk home with her or asks the privilege, is this proper, even if she has others going her way?

CLEVER.

If she came with a group it would be more courteous to them if he walked along with the crowd, if it was after night.

Dear Dolly—I would like to have some of the good advice that you give others. I have been keeping company with a young man for about four months and like him very much. When he was going home from work one night he went by with another girl, on the other side of the street. He never called to me or came over. Do you think he cares very much for me? And he saw me in the store, looked in and smiled and I never smiled at him. It made me so angry, for I should think he could have spoken to me if nothing else. Should I leave him come any more? Do you think he cares more for the other girl? Does he care for me?

BLUE EYES.

That was a small thing to get cross about. Why did you not smile disinterestedly in return and pretend you never noticed the lack of interest. Some young men have a habit of doing those kind of things to see what effect it will have on the girl. They judge her regard for them by what it brings out. I would treat him friendly, but the next time he asks for a date, tell him you are awfully sorry, but you have another engagement and perhaps some other time he can come up. Don't let on that you care, if he goes with the other girl or not and he will soon act differently. I imagine that just because he made such an effort to ignore you, that he really cares very much for you.

Dear Dolly—A gentleman friend called to see me Sunday night and he tried to put his arm around me three times, but I wouldn't stand for such conduct. Don't you think he was awfully rude?

BELE.

I'll say he was rude. He must have had an extra long arm, if it would go round you three times.

Dear Dolly—Please indicate the proper pronunciation of chauffeur, cafe and suite.

IGNORANT.

The way to say chauffeur is shaw-fer. Note the correct spelling also. Toppronounce cafe, say it in two syllables as ca-fay, with first a short and last one long. Suite is pronounced sweet.

Dear Dolly—By what power is a submarine propelled?

FIGHTING DICK.

Electric batteries supply the power.

Dear Dolly—I went with a young man for quite a while and grew very tired of him. I told him that I no longer cared for his attentions. I gave him a very useful gift for Christmas and he gave me an expensive one. I asked him to return my gift to me and I returned his. It was so expensive that I did not care to keep it. He did not want to do it, as he said that gift to me would be of no use to him now and he would use the one I gave to him. Don't you think him selfish, and did I do right by returning the expensive gift?

BETTY.

I don't know, dear, but what I would have let him keep my gift, if he could use it and showed that he would like to keep it. If you were friends so long, a little matter like a gift or two should have been overlooked when you ceased to go together. However, if it makes you feel easier to have returned the gift that he gave you, it is all right and in most cases, I should say, it was the proper thing to do.

A YOUNG GIRL.

It isn't really necessary to talk about anything. A conversation is annoying to many men.

Dear Dolly—How can a fellow have lots of friends?

WILLIE.

By going about and meeting young people, making them your friends, treating them with consideration and doing everyone a good turn when you get a chance.

Dear Dolly—I am a boy going to school and I am very bright. Dolly what will keep me from blushing when I meet the girls?

ALPHONSO.

Put a little cold cream on your face, then several coats of powder and your blushes won't be noticed.

Miss Dolly Wise—I have been reading your answers to all questions in your valuable columns, especially matrimony, and I want your advice. I am a young man of good habits, 20 years old, 5 feet tall, weigh 155 pounds, dark hair and eyes and consider myself rather handsome. I have been in Portsmouth about five months and as yet have not caught myself a girl—that is one that I wish. I have my eyes on one but have not the nerve to approach her. I have a good position at the steel plant and make very good wages, and can show a friend a good time, and I would like this lady to have my eyes on to notice me. I wear a green check suit of clothes direct English cut, English walking shoes and latest hat. Please advise me what to do in your next issue.

GUERNSEY COUNTRY KID.

If you do not know of anyone that will introduce you, the only thing left for you to do is to just speak to her. She can't do any more than turn you down.

Dear Dolly—Is it proper for a girl of 18 when out walking with a boy, if he wishes her to, to put her arms around him?

LUCASVILLE LOVER.

Certainly not!

Dear Dolly—Do you or any of your readers know what is good for a rug that curls up on the sides?

SUBSCRIBER.

A quiet and enjoyable evening was spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, 1408 Robinson avenue, followed by an old-fashioned picnic.

The remainder of the evening was spent in parlor games and music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Barber and daughter Leona, Goldie Brunfield, Grace Young, Emma Young, Anna Holmes, Emma Praither, Fay McCann, Mary McLean, Leona Teagarden, Laverne Teagarden, Agnes Warren, Angeline Warren, Clara Brunfield, Messrs. Walter Fry, Russell Gayle, Dorey Beck, Pearl McGraw, Samuel Young, Russell Tilton, Clarence Russell, Jake Winkler and John Payne.

The meeting of the Highgate Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, planned for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Edna Davis, has been changed to the home of Mrs. Frank Miller, 1161 Ninth street, on account of the illness of Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Labert, of Benson's Run, were the Saturday guests of his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snyder, of Wheelersburg.

Messrs. George L. and J. Wesley Gableman visited home folks in Waverly Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Prosser, of Waverly, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prosser, of Officers street, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please give the date of the murder of Detective Baucus.

A READER.

He was murdered about ten p. m. on Sunday, December 5th.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me what gun-powder is made of.

WOMAN READER.

Gun-powder is made of an explosive mixture of saltpeter, sulphur, and charcoal, reduced to a fine powder, then granulated and dried.

Dear Dolly—As I am engaged I would like to know how long an engagement is proper?

O. A.

Long engagements are out of date. Nowadays people marry after a six months' engagement, or even shorter.

Of course I take it for granted to have kept company long enough before becoming engaged to get thoroughly acquainted with each other's habits.

Dear Dolly—If a girl attends a union meeting and at the end, a boy offers to walk home with her or asks the privilege, is this proper, even if she has others going her way?

CLEVER.

If she came with a group it would be more courteous to them if he walked along with the crowd, if it was after night.

Dear Dolly—I would like to have some of the good advice that you give others. I have been keeping company with a young man for about four months and like him very much. When he was going home from work one night he went by with another girl, on the other side of the street. He never called to me or came over. Do you think he cares very much for me? And he saw me in the store, looked in and smiled and I never smiled at him. It made me so angry, for I should think he could have spoken to me if nothing else. Should I leave him come any more? Do you think he cares more for the other girl? Does he care for me?

BLUE EYES.

That was a small thing to get cross about. Why did you not smile disinterestedly in return and pretend you never noticed the lack of interest. Some young men have a habit of doing those kind of things to see what effect it will have on the girl. They judge her regard for them by what it brings out. I would treat him friendly, but the next time he asks for a date, tell him you are awfully sorry, but you have another engagement and perhaps some other time he can come up. Don't let on that you care, if he goes with the other girl or not and he will soon act differently. I imagine that just because he made such an effort to ignore you, that he really cares very much for you.

Dear Dolly—A gentleman friend called to see me Sunday night and he tried to put his arm around me three times, but I wouldn't stand for such conduct. Don't you think he was awfully rude?

BELE.

I'll say he was rude. He must have had an extra long arm, if it would go round you three times.

Dear Dolly—Please indicate the proper pronunciation of chauffeur, cafe and suite.

IGNORANT.

The way to say chauffeur is shaw-fer. Note the correct spelling also. Toppronounce cafe, say it in two syllables as ca-fay, with first a short and last one long. Suite is pronounced sweet.

Dear Dolly—By what power is a submarine propelled?

FIGHTING DICK.

Electric batteries supply the power.

Dear Dolly—I went with a young man for quite a while and grew very tired of him. I told him that I no longer cared for his attentions. I gave him a very useful gift for Christmas and he gave me an expensive one. I asked him to return my gift to me and I returned his. It was so expensive that I did not care to keep it. He did not want to do it, as he said that gift to me would be of no use to him now and he would use the one I gave to him. Don't you think him selfish, and did I do right by returning the expensive gift?

BETTY.

I don't know, dear, but what I would have let him keep my gift, if he could use it and showed that he would like to keep it. If you were friends so long, a little matter like a gift or two should have been overlooked when you ceased to go together. However, if it makes you feel easier to have returned the gift that he gave you, it is all right and in most cases, I should say, it was the proper thing to do.

A YOUNG GIRL.

It isn't really necessary to talk about anything. A conversation is annoying to many men.

Dear Dolly—How can a fellow have lots of friends?

WILLIE.

By going about and meeting young people, making them your friends, treating them with consideration and doing everyone a good turn when you get a chance.

Dear Dolly—I am a boy going to school and I am very bright. Dolly what will keep me from blushing when I meet the girls?

ALPHONSO.

Put a little cold cream on your face, then several coats of powder and your blushes won't be noticed.

Miss Dolly Wise—I have been reading your answers to all questions in your valuable columns, especially matrimony, and I want your advice. I am a young man of good habits, 20 years old, 5 feet tall, weigh 155 pounds, dark hair and eyes and consider myself rather handsome. I have been in Portsmouth about five months and as yet have not caught myself a girl—that is one that I wish. I have my eyes on one but have not the nerve to approach her. I have a good position at the steel plant and make very good wages, and can show a friend a good time, and I would like this lady to have my eyes on to notice me. I wear a green check suit of clothes direct English cut, English walking shoes and latest hat. Please advise me what to do in your next issue.

GUERNSEY COUNTRY KID.

If you do not know of anyone that will introduce you, the only thing left for you to do is to just speak to her. She can't do any more than turn you down.

Dear Dolly—Is it proper for a girl of 18 when out walking with a boy, if he wishes her to, to put her arms around him?

LUCASVILLE LOVER.

Certainly not!

Dear Dolly—Do you or any of your readers know what is good for a rug that curls up on the sides?

SUBSCRIBER.

A quiet and enjoyable evening was spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, 1408 Robinson avenue, followed by an old-fashioned picnic.

The remainder of the evening was spent in parlor games and music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Barber and daughter Leona, Goldie Brunfield, Grace Young, Emma Young, Anna Holmes, Emma Praither, Fay McCann, Mary McLean, Leona Teagarden, Laverne Teagarden, Agnes Warren, Angeline Warren, Clara Brunfield, Messrs. Walter Fry, Russell Gayle, Dorey Beck, Pearl McGraw, Samuel Young, Russell Tilton, Clarence Russell, Jake Winkler and John Payne.

The meeting of the Highgate Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, planned for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Edna Davis, has been changed to the home of Mrs. Frank Miller, 1161 Ninth street, on account of the illness of Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Labert, of Benson's Run, were the Saturday guests of his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snyder, of Wheelersburg.

Messrs. George L. and J. Wesley Gableman visited home folks in Waverly Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Prosser, of Waverly, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prosser, of Officers street, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please give the date of the murder of Detective Baucus.

A READER.

He was murdered about ten p. m. on Sunday, December 5th.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me what gun-powder is made of.

WOMAN READER.

Gun-powder is made of an explosive mixture of saltpeter, sulphur, and charcoal, reduced to a fine powder, then granulated and dried.

Dear Dolly—As I am engaged I would like to know how long an engagement is proper?

O. A.

Long engagements are out of date. Nowadays people marry after a six months' engagement, or even shorter.

Of course I take it for granted to have kept company long enough before becoming engaged to get thoroughly acquainted with each other's habits.

Dear Dolly—If a girl attends a union meeting and at the end, a boy offers to walk home with her or asks the privilege, is this proper, even if she has others going her way?

CLEVER.

If she came with a group it would be more courteous to them if he walked along with the crowd, if it was after night.

Dear Dolly—I would like to have some of the good advice that you give others. I have been keeping company with a young man for about four months and like him very much. When he was going home from work one night he went by with another girl, on the other side of the street. He never called to me or came over. Do you think he cares very much for me? And he saw me in the store, looked in and smiled and I never smiled at him. It made me so angry, for I should think he could have spoken to me if nothing else. Should I leave him come any more? Do you think he cares more for the other girl? Does he care for me?

BLUE EYES.

That was a small thing to get cross about. Why did you not smile disinterestedly in return and pretend you never noticed the lack of interest. Some young men have a habit of doing those kind of things to see what effect it will have on the girl. They judge her regard for them by what it brings out. I would treat him friendly, but the next time he asks for a date, tell him you are awfully sorry, but you have another engagement and perhaps some other time he can come up. Don't let on that you care, if he goes with the other girl or not and he will soon act differently. I imagine that just because he made such an effort to ignore you, that he really cares very much for you.

Dear Dolly—A gentleman friend called to see me Sunday night and he tried to put his arm around me three times, but I wouldn't stand for such conduct. Don't you think he was awfully rude?

BELE.

I'll say he was rude. He must have had an extra long arm, if it would go round you three times.

Dear Dolly—Please indicate the proper pronunciation of chauffeur, cafe and suite.

IGNORANT.

The way to say chauffeur is shaw-fer. Note the correct spelling also. Toppronounce cafe, say it in two syllables as ca-fay, with first a short and last one long. Suite is pronounced sweet.

Dear Dolly—By what power is a submarine propelled?

Everything Ready For The Head Pin Tourney

Portsmouth's premier bowling event will take place at the Play House, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, when the first leg of the head pin tournament will be held. In order that every bowler in the city will have an equal chance, the tournament will be held in the afternoon as well as at night. The alleys, through the kindness of Manager William N. Gableman, have been turned over to the members of the Play House team who will represent Portsmouth at the A. B. C. to be held at Peoria, Ill., and all receipts will be used to defray the expense of the team.

With his characteristic patriotism and progressiveness, Isadore Goodman, proprietor of the United Wollen Co., steps forward with the donation of a tailor made suit of clothes as his offering to the cause. The Crown Tailors, who made their initial bow to the public of Portsmouth on Saturday, will also donate a suit of tailor made suit, an offer that is most highly appreciated by the Peoria team. The Brunswick-Balke-Coller Co., of Cincinnati, through their local representative, William Barron, will donate a $16 mottled mineralite bowling ball, to be used to suit the grip of the winner. The Malvern Candy Co., will give a box of chocolates, a box that retails at not less than $7.50. The Smoke House will donate a box of La Coccina cigars, a prize well worth shooting for. The Play House will give a suitable prize. The prizes to be offered are the best ever put up for any head pin tournament, and the winners will have something to show for their skill. On alleys 4 and 5 the head pin tournament for the big pins will be held, while the duck pin tourney will be held on alleys 1, 2 and 3.

On Thursday evening, alleys 4 and 5 will be turned over to the members of the Masonic Bowling League, who will be out in full force to give an excellent demonstration of their prowess in the pine alleys. The members of this fine organization are a unit for the great sport of bowling, and they intend to prove their interest by patronizing the tournament freely.

It is now stated that a team of duck pin bowlers from Huntington will meet a local team at the Play House on Wednesday evening. This will not interfere to any great extent with the head pin tourney. The duck pin match will not last to exceed one hour and a half and after it is finished the tourney on ducks will be continued. And it is possible that some Huntington bowler will walk off with one of the prizes. Remember, the tournaments will be held in the afternoon as well as during the nights. Make your arrangements to participate in a new suit.

Huntington Five Defeated By P. H. S.

Steady and hard playing coupled with splendid team work enabled Portsmouth high school's basketball contingent to beat Huntington high at the latter's gym Saturday evening by a score of 29 to 26, the game being one of the most exciting of the season. The Red and Blue boys consider it a great honor to beat Huntington who have invariably beat Portsmouth both in basketball and football. The victory was all the sweeter as it was handed to Huntington on their own floor. Over 500 witnessed the battle. It was the Red and Blue lads second game with the new lineup and they did fine work, the game with Gallipolis here Friday night affording them needed practice for Saturday's battle. Huntington hotly contested every inch of the floor but the locals' team work aided by accurate passing enabled them to work the ball down the floor for a basket. Test at center, was in rare form and led in the scoring securing six field goals and five goals. The first half ended with the score 19 to 18 in favor of the Huntington lads.

The locals struck the up river team at a time when they were crippled by the loss of two regulars who are out on account of injuries. Dabney, forward, and Crawford, center, were the substitutes. York, at right forward for the locals, played his usual fine game. Poul, who played at left forward for the second time in his basketball career, aided in the scoring by making four field goals. Captain Swigshelm, who was at left guard for the second time in three seasons played a brilliant game as did his teammates "Pete" Brundie. The work of Referee Chambers of Marshall college was excellent. McLaughlin of Oatlandsburg did the umpiring. Following are the lineups:

P. H. S. H. H. S.
York.....RF.....Workman
Fout.....LF.....Dabney
Test.....G.....Crawford
Brandle.....RG.....Castleberry
Swigshelm.....LG.....Roach
Field Goals—Test 6; York 2; Workman 5, Dabney 4, Crawford two.
Poul Goals—Test 5; Workman 4.
Referee—Chambers.
Umpire—McLaughlin.
Time of halves—20 minutes.

BAGGAN AND CRUM STAR

Two former Portsmouth players Johnny Baggan and Cal Crum featured a game played Saturday by San Antonio and the Cleveland Americans. The Naps won 7 to 4 Baggan's timely hitting was a feature and Crum pitched in mid-season form.

15 Head of Horses
Frank Wigham received fifteen head of horses from Northern Ohio Friday. He expects to dispose of them in the local market.

Back From Cincy
Attorney Mark Crawford has returned from a legal business trip to Cincinnati.

Attend Church Services
A number of young folks of Wheelersburg formed a delegation and attended the revival services at the Siloam, Ky., First Christian church Friday evening.

FIRST SESSION OF STAR'S "PROBE" IS TAME AFFAIR; ANOTHER MEETING TONIGHT

The city probe into the accusations made by the Morning Star against Director Jos. Lake and the public safety department was started at the council chamber Saturday evening and the initial session was practically devoid of any testimony of a damaging character. Practically all witnesses examined gave the hospital a clean bill of health.

The prosecution itself frankly admitted that the few witnesses examined had not brought out anything of an important nature repeatedly declaring that their two material witnesses Miss Edna Wiget, of No. 1817 Oakland avenue and Mrs. James Routt, of Tenth street, were unavoidably detained by illness.

The committee promptly sat down on efforts to postpone the investigation after Monday, insisting that it wanted to get the probe under way and over with at the earliest time possible.

Judge A. Z. Blair, one of the attorneys for the defense, had asked that the next meeting be held on Tuesday as he had to go to Adams county Monday.

ASKED FOR POSTPONEMENT

Attorney Edgar Miller for the prosecution had a business engagement for Tuesday, he said, and did not know if he would be able to get back on an evening train. He suggested that the next session be put off until Thursday expressing the belief that one complete session would wind up the probe.

"That is a matter of opinion with you Mr. Miller, but the lawyers for the other side may take a different view of it," interrupted Chairman Leslie C. Turley. The latter felt that Attorney B. F. Kimble would be able to look after the interests of the defendants without the presence of his associate Judge Blair Monday evening, but the two lawyers appeared unwilling to continue with the probe unless both were present. The judge finally agreed to strain a point saying that by coming on a C. & O. train he would be able to arrive at 8 p. m. Monday and accordingly, the committee fixed upon that hour as the time for the next session.

MAYOR ATTENDS SESSIONS

An air of expectancy marked the arrival of the principals, witnesses and press representatives and after considerable time was spent on the seating arrangements the committee consisting of Les. H. C. Turley, Rev. J. W. Dunning and Harry Strong prepared for the task before it. Seated at one end of the committee's table was Mrs. Kate Walsh who had been selected as official stenographer.

Dr. Lake and Miss Helen Lowe, superintendent of the hospital, were assigned seats along side the attorneys Blair and Kimble, while opposite them F. W. Myers, not overlooking a single person for of the Star sat beside Attorney Miller. Officer Roy Moore acted as sergeant-at-arms, Officer J. B. Allen as bailiff and Officer Theo. Brauhm as messenger.

Mr. Turley announced the purpose of the meeting and asked that the committee be sworn in. Mr. Miller suggested that City Solicitor Stanley McCall, who was also present, administer the oath, but when it was remarked that Mayor Adnan Erick was coming, it was decided to await his arrival. "We're glad you have come and wish that you attend all of the sessions," said Mr. Turley to the mayor, who made the rounds opposite them F. W. Myers, not overlooking a single person for of the Star sat beside Attorney Miller.

WITNESSES SLOW IN ARRIVING

The committee was sworn in by the mayor and proceeded to inquire if both sides were ready. "The witnesses don't appear to be here," said Mr. Miller, but it was decided to begin with the few who had gathered.

Mr. Turley announced that the investigation was not a trial and that the committee expected to merely follow the lines set down in the demands for the resignation of Dr. Lake and the department. The committee he said would read these demands and statements to each witness and expect every witness to tell what he or she knows. The committee would then call on the adverse side and when that side finished the call on the other side to question the witness. Mr. Turley also suggested that the committee be sworn in.

DEPOSED JANITOR GOES ON STAND

William Ballman, who a week ago was relieved of the position of city building janitor, was the first witness to take the stand. Fred Baesman, clerk of the safety department, was halted at the door but at Dr. Lake's request was admitted to the room.

Mr. Turley read the paragraphs from the February 28th issue of the Star to Mr. Ballman and asked him if he knew of any facts the committee ought to know that were discreditable to the safety director or his department. "No Sir" came the prompt reply. He was asked if he knew anything about the affairs at the hospital and he said he did not.

Asked as to the disposal of liquor taken from prisoners at police headquarters he said "Nothing whatever except that the liquor was left over there in the mayor's office and the full bottles were sent to the hospital and some was used on the machine (city service wagon). None was improperly used by my knowledge."

He was then asked as to alleged visits of women at a city office, Mr. Turley telling him that the committee earnestly and sincerely wanted to get all of the facts.

SAW A LADY IN THE OFFICE

"The only thing I do know," said the witness, "is that one night—I can't just recall the exact time—when I got through with my work and a colored lodger whom I had helping me went with me to the safety office and we saw a lady in the office. I judge it was 7:30 or 8 o'clock. Don't know how long she remained there. Dr. Lake was in there at the time. There were no others that I saw. I do not know when she arrived or when she left for I didn't pay any further attention to her."

Ask if he had seen anything discreditable he said, "No." Asked if it was unusual for ladies to be to the office on business in the evening he replied: "Well I never saw so many go in there of evenings."

"Did you at other times?" "Don't recall that I do," he replied. Dunning asked him the time of the alleged occurrence. "It was a while back, three weeks probably," said the witness.

Ballman was now examined by Mr. Miller and asked if he had not signed a statement to the effect that the lights were out at the time referred to. He admitted that he had and said: "The lights were out and when I went back the second time the lights were on. Dr. Lake held the telephone in his hand."

HAD "HEARD ABOUT" SERVICE WAGON

Asked what he knew about the service wagon being put to use as a taxi cab he said: "Only as I heard, not of my own knowledge. I understood it had left the stable twice and if I'm not mistaken it was driven by a young gentleman friend of mine, William Heisel." He was asked if he had seen another lady at the safety office one meet a woman there. "I don't know that I can't answer that question," replied the witness. "I'd rather be accused for personal reasons," said Ballman and he. Mr. Miller said he would not

WINDOW WAS OPEN

Judge Blair now plied the witness with questions regarding his relationship. He said Mrs. Routt was his sister-in-law and that his wife was a cousin of Police Capt. Cooper. He admitted that at the time he saw Dr. Lake and a lady in the office a side window was open and that one could see through from the window all right. Asked if the woman was not Mrs. Pano he replied "I think I have a slight idea who she was. I never paid any attention for I wasn't interested and didn't even look to see who the lady was."

Announcement was now made that both Miss Wiget and Mrs. Routt were ill and unable to appear.

Mrs. Ballman was ordered sent for and meanwhile Carey Cooper,

THIS IS A "TERRIBLE" CHARGE

"I don't know his wife but suppose it was her. I don't kiss anyone but my wife."

Questioned by the committee Mr. Cooper said he saw Miss Lowe and met the nurses at the hospital. Their treatment was very cordial and his sister had never complained to him. He had seen nothing improper, the hospital was kept clean and was properly conducted as far as he

WITNESS WAS REPORTED DRUNK

The name of James Sneed, a discharged janitor of the hospital, was next called. He was reported absent and unable to be found. Mr. Miller at this juncture announced that the two witnesses the prosecution wanted most were not present. Mr. Turley insisted that as the committee was extremely anxious to get through the witnesses should attend. Officer Moore now reported that Sneed was under the influence of liquor and unable to appear. Officer Brauhm reported Mrs. Routt was ill and unable to appear.

The mayor asked the privilege of a brief statement. He suggested that Sneed be put into custody until Monday evening if he was to go over. He said he had been drunk the entire winter and the city had been spending many a good dollar saving him from the pangs of hunger, privations, etc. He suggested that he be put in the county jail and not in the city prison where he would "be an annoyance to us."

Mr. Turley requested the mayor or to detail an officer to guard Sneed until Monday night to which the mayor agreed. Sneed will be allowed to remain at the Bridges boarding stable.

MORE "HEARSAY" TESTIMONY

Mrs. Ballman, who was next called testified that she knew of nothing wrong at the hospital from her own observation but said her sister, Mrs. James Routt, "can tell a whole lot." She assured the committee she would try her best to get her before the committee Monday evening. Asked what she knew about the disposal of liquor at the police station, she said: "Only what people say. Mr. Ballman can tell you about that."

She was asked about clandestine visits of women at a city of

SAYS WOMAN WAS IN OFFICE

He found Baesman in there with the woman. In five or ten minutes, she said, Baesman came out by himself. The woman was still in there and the lights were lit after Lake went in. Baesman told his husband the next day that Dr. Lake had caught him with a woman in there."

Judge Blair asked that the witness confine herself to what she herself knew, and not what had been told her. She knew of no other occasions when women visited the office. Asked by Rev. Dunning, she said she did not know how long Dr. Lake remained with the woman. Mr. Strong asked her if she knew the woman. She replied that she had never seen her before.

Judge Blair now took the witness in hand. She said she was a cousin of Grant Cooper, sister of Mrs. Routt and Carey Cooper, who had been discharged from the police force, was her brother. She said it was about a month ago that she saw the woman in the safety office.

MAYOR EXPLAINS ABOUT BALLMAN

The mayor, feeling it pertinent now, launched into a review of the Ballman affair, from the time Ballman applied for the job on January 2, 1914. Knowing the circumstances that surrounded the young man when he held the position under former Mayor T. C. Segre, he denied him the job. Ballman, he said, was very much "peevish." Democratic friends, and also a good many Republican friends, interceded for him, but the pleadings fell upon barren soil until later, when finally, with the understanding that his wife was not to visit him when at work, he was given the position. The mayor's review was suddenly, but politely, cut short by Mr. Turley assuring him he had given the committee a good understanding of the case, or as much as was needed for the present, and the committee would, if it deemed it necessary, call on him for additional details later.

GOT THE WRONG MAN "ON A POLE"

Arthur Dixon, a Bell telephone lineman, was a greatly surprised man when the committee began insist upon the question being answered. Rev. Dunning asked if this had any bearing on Dr. Lake's conduct, but Mr. Miller contended that Baesman was the director's clerk and therefore a member of the department but finally waived the question. Mr. Turley now announced that the committee was not going to investigate, everyone connected with the department but held that the question was in order coming as it did under the fourth head of the Star's statement and put the question again though not insisting upon it being answered. "I would rather be accused for personal reasons," said Ballman and his request was granted.

only since October 17 and had never visited the city office or hospital in his life. Mr. Miller explained to the committee that while, perhaps progress was best made ordinarily by the committee beginning the questioning of witnesses, here was one instance that was the very opposite. Mr. Dixon, he said, had been subpoenaed for a purpose, but had since learned he was not the man wanted and that it was only a waste of time to question him. He said a telephone lineman reported a conversation he had overheard between Dr. Lake and Miss Lowe while he was working on a telephone pole. "Not me. I'm not the man and am never on the hospital line," said Dixon.

"I believe, you're from Adams county?" asked Judge Blair, and when Dixon nodded affirmatively, the Judge exclaimed "You're all right."

Charles P. Stump, former city plumbing inspector, was also summoned by mistake, according to Mr. Miller. Mr. Stump assured the committee that he knew absolutely nothing about the affairs of the hospital or safety department and was turned over to Judge Blair, who did not regard it worth while to question him, dismissing him with this compliment: "He looks like a good man." And he is a good man," said Mr. Miller.

Mr. Miller now reported that Miss Wiget had undergone a surgical operation and it was doubtful when she could appear and that it might be necessary to visit her to secure her testimony, and as for Mrs. Routt, she was suffering only with a temporary indisposition—nervousness—and would probably appear Monday evening. "I think one complete session will end this," said he. The committee again insisted that witnesses appear promptly, insuring them every courtesy and consideration, and then adjourned until Monday night.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT YET?
La Cocina Cigar
On sale by 250 dealers in Sevier County
The Greatest
5c
Cigars you ever enjoyed
Stanton & McMahon
Distributors
Good Cigars at perfect condition.
"THE SMOKE HOUSE"
820 Galia Street
Phone 1426

DR. J. F. YORK
Physician and Surgeon
Diseases of stomach, abdomen, rectum and genito-urinary diseases
Office Room 65, First National Bank Bldg
Home Phone 990.
Hours: 8 to 12 a.m.; 2 to 5 p.m.
7 to 9 p.m.

FRATERNAL DIRECTORY
Fraternal Order of Eagles
River City Aerie, No. 567
Meets every Thursday evening
Sixth and Chillicothe Streets
Wm. N. Gableman, Secretary.
Phone 411 and Y 915

HOTEL Manhattan
AND Restaurant
ALEX CHOCALAS, Prop.
European Plan. Reasonable Rates.
Rooms and Bath.

CHARLES D. SCUDDER
General Insurance
ROOM 26 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
PHONE 1605

$74.53
PANAMA EXPOSITION and return via
N.A.W.

Tickets on sale daily until November 31st, limited 3 months for return. Choice of desirable routes for the most scenic trip, with lowest fares in both directions. $22.50 round trip tickets round via North Pacific Coast (either one direction).
We will gladly help you arrange your itinerary, giving you advantages of first side trips, points of interest, and secure through sleeping car reservation.
FREE DESCRIPTIVE LITERATURE UPON REQUEST

For full information call at City Ticket Office, Sixth Street opposite postoffice, or address
R. E. SCOTT, Pass. Agt.
FREE Descriptive Literature

They Came, They Saw, They Ordered Did You?

More than a thousand men attended our opening Saturday and many left their order for Spring Suits. We are highly gratified over the success of our opening, and hereby extend our appreciation.

COME ORDER YOUR SUIT NOW!

Every garment pressed and kept in repair for one year.	$15.00	Perfect satisfaction or Money Refunded
	NO MORE	NO LESS

ALL UNION MADE

CROWN

TAILORS

604 CHILICOTHE ST. PORTSMOUTH, O.

"Originators Of $15.00 Tailoring"

Robbery Uncovered When Charles Burt Is Arrested

The arrest of Charles Burt, a son of Cal Burt for drunkenness early Saturday morning, led to the uncovering of a robbery at J. M. Augustin's building, No. 628 Front street.

Burt was found sleeping off a jay in the B. & O. S. W. sand house by Officer George Harding at one o'clock. Some toilet soap, tooth powder, two boxes of cigars and a skeleton key were found in his possession and these were at once recalled to Chief W. T. McCarty's mind when later in the morning Mr. Augustin reported that his place had been looted.

Burt was "sweated" by the chief and at once admitted his guilt at the same time implicating the police say, Cecil Platt, Charles Martin, Fred "Gush" Taylor and "Happy" Phillips.

Burt said entrance to the building was gained Friday night by removing the iron cellar grating and the rest was easy for the elevator was not in its customary place on the first floor and the young men were thus enabled to reach the store room by climbing up through the elevator shaft. Five hundred cigars to the value of $15, five boxes of soap worth $1.50, six vests valued at $18, a large quantity of neck ties and other articles were taken. These were found, the police say, at the Martin, Taylor and Platt homes. All of the young men excepting Phillips were caught. Phillips' home on Front street near Washington; was visited several times Saturday night but he was not to be found. His father, Harry Phillips, called at police headquarters Sunday afternoon and reported that his son had gone to Kentucky and that he was to enter upon a new job Monday and was anxious to learn the nature of the charge against him. He was informed that it was burglary. He promised to produce his boy Monday morning if he was not molested. Chief McCarty assured him that he would instruct the officers not to visit the family home Sunday night. Phillips said his son had been drinking.

Burt and Platt pleaded guilty in police court Monday and while Martin and Taylor entered pleas of not guilty, they were held equally guilty by the mayor and all were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200 each.

Callers pumped out, 10 cents per hour. Walters Plumbing Co. adv.

POLICE NEWS

Everett McClinnis, who was arrested for alleged stealing a bicycle from Howard Smith, of No. 844 Third street, showed in court Monday that he had gotten the bike of Ethel Lewis and the mayor instead found the latter $10. "Cuts" Sly, whose latest stunt was posing as a coal miner, begging money with which to return to his home in West Virginia, and spending the money thus gained from unsuspecting citizens of Ninth street, was fined $5 and ordered to rejoin the street gang.

Charles Bishop and George Clark, plain drunks, were also arrested.

Homer Myers, William Childers, Arthur McClintock, Amos and William Hubbard, James Sneed and Harry Selsler were fined $5 each for intoxication.

Alex Bard, Thomas Washington and Frank Cousins, charged with loitering, were fined $5 each and later permitted to go.

HOW "TIZ" HELPS SORE, TIRED FEET

Good-bye sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelly feet, tired feet. Good-bye corns, calluses, bunions and all sorts of foot troubles. "TIZ" is magical. It draws out all the poisonous excretions which irritate the feet. "TIZ" is a foot powder. It keeps your feet cool, dry and comfortable. It is a 25-cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.

HENRY H. WINTER
Orthopedic Specialist

Foot Braces Made to Order
At Winter's Economy Shoe Store

Vicious Fight Was Staged Behind Bars

"Beans" Evans and Tobe Henry, two North End characters, precipitated a free-for-all fight inside the city prison late Saturday night.

The two young men provoked a fight with Greek lodgers and were worsted. They renewed the trouble and a desperate struggle ensued. One of the Greeks was laid out for a few minutes and Evans, himself, was badly used up. Broom-handles, and even sections of water pipes were used as weapons. Other prisoners were driven panicky by the fierce encounter. Police rushed in just in time to prevent a tragedy. It was necessary to call a water-workman to stop the overflow of water caused by Evans breaking off the pipe, and it is estimated that fully $15 damage was done to the prison. All lodgers have been ordered held to give testimony so that responsibility for the trouble may be properly fixed.

Evans and Henry were found drunk back of the Heer Engine company's plant and answered the descriptions given of two men who shortly before were caught trying to enter the Hempstead hospital through a basement window. Harry Porter, the hospital janitor, fired one pistol shot at them. The mayor on Monday fined the two $25 and costs each sentenced them to 90 days in the workhouse.

TAXIS CARRY CONVERTS TO RIVER FOR SUNRISE BAPTISM

The taxi cab was called upon Sunday morning to perform a rather unique service as several conveyances of this character were used to convey candidates for baptismal rites to the foot of Union street, where they were baptized at sunrise in the Ohio river by Rev. John Irvin, pastor of Allen A. M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Grant Metcalf. The following persons were immersed in the river: Harry Armstrong, Annie Rider, Hazel Bunch and Dollie Hamilton. These services were followed by the regular Sunday services in the A. M. E. church on Seventh street. Rev. Metcalf, who assisted in the services celebrated his 50th birthday anniversary Sunday. The following persons were sprinkled at the morning and evening services at the A. M. E. church Sunday:

Flattie Ewing, Russell Pennan, Mrs. Mattie Marshall, Mrs. Eliza Underwood, Gladys Williams, Goldie Marie Washington, Fannie Elizabeth Washington, Laura Ella Washington, Marjorie Helen Johnson, Mrs. Maxie Pilon, Herbert Irvin, Mrs. Irene Kirk, Mrs. Lowell E. Powell, Mr. Robert Robinson, Mrs. Beulah Knox, Mrs. Jessie Armstrong, Mr. Grant Johnson, Mrs. Grace Bush, Miss Stella Warren, Miss Edith Irvin, Miss Beatrice Pennan, Mr. Harrison Webster, Mr. Timothy Greenleaf, Floyd Newman, Roosevelt Price, Mr. Kane Fossett, Mr. Elmer Frederick White, John Irvin and Mark Melvin.

AH! THOSE FOND FAREWELLS

Trying to get back from Huntington Sunday proved rather strenuous for Otis Post, Howard Swishelm and Fred Klingman. They missed the last train out of Huntington, partially because they lingered too long over last farewells. An interurban carried them as far as fronton where they were fortunate enough to catch the Greenland to Portsmouth.

SWALLOWED HIS TEETH

Dan Wilson, well known Stockdale farmer and politician, had the strange misfortune a few days ago to swallow several false teeth.

Prompt action upon the part of a physician, who used an emetic recovered the lost molars and Dan is once more back to normal condition.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Prof. D. P. Pratt, of 513 Fourth street, underwent a surgical operation, which was performed by a specialist from Cincinnati in the Hempstead hospital at 8:30 Sunday morning. Prof. Pratt rallied splendidly from the operation, it was stated, and his condition was reported satisfactory Monday.

HOME RULE LEAGUE

The Home Rule league held a big meeting Sunday and 14 additional members were enrolled in its membership. The Wilhelmette hall has been secured by the league for a dance on Easter Monday night. It will be a continuous affair, as two orchestras, the Gusto Trio and Morrill Trio, have been engaged to furnish the music. There will be no lull in dancing, one of the orchestras playing all the time.

PUT OUT DUMP FIRE

"The recent high water did one good thing for the city and that was to put out the North Chillicothe street dump fire," said Louis Thonmann, assistant city service director Monday. Mr. Thonmann added that it really required a flood to extinguish the fire which had been smoldering for some months past.

PICTURES TONIGHT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Three reels of motion pictures "An American Fireman," and "Balls On the Nile." Members of the Bible school holding tickets are admitted free.

NOTICE
I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Nellie Emmert.
JOHN EMMERT.
March 5-31

BURGLARS AT THE Y. W. C. A.

Sneak thieves tore out a window screen and entered a basement dormitory at the Y. W. C. A. building during the supper hour Saturday evening but an inventory showed nothing was missing.

Shortly after men were heard cursing and otherwise noisy in the alley at the rear of the laundry but they soon moved on. Officer Joe Bonzo hearing of the attempted robbery in an indirect way Monday morning made an investigation of his own accord.

White Woman Files Charges Against Negro

Tom King, a negro youth, was locked up by Officer Allen Monday noon on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Ada Moore, white, of Fourteenth street and Robinson avenue. She charged that King had threatened to assault her, and told the police that the lad tried to force his way into her home while she was away, greatly frightening a young girl who was home alone. She said last time he came he had some negro companions with him, and when she chased him he threw a rock, striking her on the foot.

King denied he had any wrong intentions in visiting the Moore home, saying he had gone there to collect 30 cents for some fish he had previously delivered. He claimed the woman threw a brick at him when he returned Monday, as he had been told to do by her husband. The chief told him: he should have known better than visit the home after night.

DEEDS

Real estate deals recorded Monday included the following:

Hutchins & Hum company to Amelia M. Williams, east 35 feet of lot 13 in Sunnyside addition, $1 et al.
Anna M. and Edward Coriell to Elbert C. McCoy, lot 47 in Lincoln addition, $3300.
Henry B. Johnson to George R. Jordan, lot 17 in Highland addition, $1 et al.
Margaret B. and Arthur E. Bygstad to Leo Sommer, west 20 1/4 feet of lot 18 and an east half of lot 17 in Adams Centennial addition, $1 et al.

BISHOP CHANGES DATE OF LEXINGTON CONFERENCE

The Lexington conference which was to be held in Chicago, Ill., March 25th, by Bishop McDowell, has been changed and is now in the hands of Bishop William F. Anderson, who is general superintendent over the area of which the Lexington conference is part. Bishop Anderson began last June and made an extended tour through our work in Africa, thinking at that time he would not be able to hold our spring conference this year, allowing himself at least a year to have made the trip. It is thought that the present war in Europe had something to do with his very extensive trip, for indeed some apparent dangers were his while away and his trip seemed to have been reduced to less than a year in duration.

Bishop McDowell having his Episcopal residence in Chicago, Ill., the seat of our next annual conference session, the authority for holding said conference was delegated to him, in lieu of Bishop Anderson's absence, who saw fit to make his plan of Episcopal visitation as adequate as possible, and thus the 25th of March was given the Lexington annual conference because of the much pressing business in the spring months. One hundred and fifteen Methodist preachers heard the call of this honored prelate and were preparing for marching orders on to Chicago, there to give account of their stewardship for the 365 days since the last commission to go and preach was sounded at Owensboro, Kentucky. The Lexington annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church is one of the most powerful instruments of Methodism for good to colored people. Situated as it is on both sides of the Mason and Dixon line, covering in territory, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, parts of Michigan and Illinois as far as Chicago.

The change of the date from March 25th to April 14th of the conference session will be hailed I know with great delight by many of the brethren who were very desirous of keeping Easter festivities this year before saying farewell to their many congregations.

The Lexington conference is composed of five districts and has a total membership of 15,256 full members and probationers, 159 churches, with a property valuation of $73,775; Sunday schools, 143, with a membership of 10,332; thus can be seen the extensiveness of the work and its good for the

We have taken over the The Bragdon Dry Goods Co. Butterick patterns. Balcony main floor. Butterick Patterns. April issue now on sale.

New Spring Merchandise

Just 4 weeks until Easter. Better make your selection of Coat, Suit or Skirt now while assortment is complete.

Women's and Misses' Spring Coats

Charming in their richness and smart style, featuring all the new concepts of poquets and belts that 1915 fashion decrees.

In the finest Merino Wear Serge, Gabardine, Tweeds, Scotch Mixtures, Shepherd Checks and the newest of novelty effects. Also splendid showing White Sport Coats.

PRICES $8.98 TO $16

Women's Spring Suits

Tailored and Dressy Suits.

The greatest values we have ever shown to start the season.

All Coats silk lined, trimmed with chicest lars and cuffs.

PRICES $12.00 TO $20.00

New Wash Silk Waists and Embroidered and Voile Waists.

Special values, $1.00.

New Spring Piece Goods

Yard wide Silk Poplins, yard 75c
25-inch Silk Poplins, yard 45c
40-inch Silk Pongees, yard $1.00
40-inch fine Silk Crepes, yard $1.19
36-inch Silk and Wool Crepes, yard 45c
Yard wide Messalines in plain colors and stripes, yard $1.00
36-inch Printed Voiles, yard 25c
40-inch Imported Crepes, yard 25c
Fine Silk Gingham, 25c value, yd. 15c
Fine and sheer Gingham, 25c value, yd. 15c
Yard wide Pureals, light and dark, yd. 15c
New Spring Gingham for school dresses and waists, 12 1/2c value, yard 10c
Galton Cloth, choice selections, yd. 12 1/2c

New Embroideries & Laces

New Spring Hosiery in Tulle and Silk.
New Spring weight Burson Hose 15c pair.

Housecleaning time near at hand. We are prepared to meet your wants at economy prices. Linoleums, Rugs, Curtains, Draperies, Shades, Poles, etc.

The Bragdon Dry Goods Company

"THE STORE ACCOMMODATING"
FOURTH AND CHILLICOOTHE STS.
MASONIC TEMPLE

BISHOP CHANGES DATE OF LEXINGTON CONFERENCE

figures are looked upon I feel proud that I had a part in the great work of the church of which Findlay Street M. E. is a part.

We have no reason to hang our heads in shame when we know that our people will receive good, wholesome instruction in the deep things that appertain unto Godliness. Let other negro organizations do as well as the Lexington annual conference of the M. E. church and the day is not far distant when the hills and valleys shall resound with the lost are found and the dead are alive and the poor have the Gospel preached unto them.

Well has Bishops Cranston, Moore, Fowler, Bowman, Hamilton, McDowell, Hughes, Warner, Vincent, McIntyre, Jaete, Thirion and Anderson said to us "Go ye into all the world and preach." When these stupendous

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid in the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, producing the inflammation, stiffness and pain. The acid gets into the blood through some of the digestive process.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It acts directly, purifying effect, on the blood and improves the digestion. Don't suffer. Get Hood's today.

Hanan Shoes

Our customers demand Hanan Shoes for the same reason that they buy real diamonds instead of paste, genuine silk instead of near-silk—or any other standard line of merchandise that has never been successfully imitated.

Frank J. Baker

THE SLEEPLESS SHOEMAN
Exclusive Agent
845 Gallica

CASCARETS FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, HEADACHE, COLDS

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rasps out of the head, ache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver clogged with bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the source for annoying food; the excess bile from your liver; and carry off all the contaminated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

Police On Trail

The police have received a request from Chief John N. Allaback, of Dayton, for a description and photo of a man giving the name of Ed J. Lyons awaiting hearing here for alleged forging a check at Toledo.

Chief Allaback seems to think the young man may be the same who under the name of Capt. A. S. Barber and claiming to be an officer in the U. S. marine corps, secured $43 from a merchant there by means of a bogus check, purchasing $257 worth of furniture and tendering a check of $300 on a Syracuse, N. Y., bank.

Concord Grange

At the meeting of the Concord Grange of Wheelersburg, held in the high school of that village Saturday night the following persons were added to the charter list: Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, Prof. and Mrs. E. O. McCowen, Henry Pieper, Charles Flannigan, James Kehoe and John Fritz. Albert Zoellner presided over the meeting.

Fullerton Meeting

Members of the degree team of the Dr. O. U. A. M., will go to Fullerton, Tuesday evening, to put on the degree work for a class of candidates that will be taken in by the Fullerton lodge. They are requested to meet in their hall at 6:30 Tuesday evening.

ALL THESE GOOD THINGS

TONIGHT

JUDITH OF BETHULIA

Biograph's masterpiece in four thrilling parts, featuring Blanche Sweet and a main-cast supporting company of more than 3,000 men and women.

ALSO "PATHE'S WEEKLY"

TOMORROW

"An Invitation and An Attack"

A two-reel Edison feature

"THE ESCAPE ON THE FAST FREIGHT"

Another of those thrilling railroad pictures we show every Tuesday.

WEDNESDAY

"THE RED BLOOD OF COURAGE"

A most interesting Selig picture, featuring Bessie Epton and Thomas Santelich and an all-star company.

"HEARTS TO LET"

Vitaphone comedy with Leo Delaney and Leah Baird.

AT THE COLUMBIA THIS WEEK

THURSDAY (6 reels)

"BETWEEN SAVAGE AND TIGER"

A big thrilling six-reel picture taken in the jungles of India, showing "ferocious" wild beasts in their native haunts, also the savage tribes who live in this wilderness.

Friday-PARAMOUNT DAY-Friday

IT'S NO LAUGHING MATTER

Featuring Mabely Arbuckle in five reels of rare comedy. If you enjoy a good hearty laugh, you can't afford to miss seeing this Paramount comedy next Friday.

FLOOD WALL EXTENSION IS RECOMMENDED

The city board of control at a called meeting Monday afternoon awarded a contract to A. M. Campbell for the construction of a full bridge at Second and Scioto streets for $750 on his own plan to restore the point and flood wall to their former usefulness. Mr. Campbell assured the board he would commence work Tuesday morning.

The board after reviewing past but futile efforts to proceed with the opening through to Ninth street of Harvard Place decided to await a canvass among the property owners before deciding to recommend the paving of that thoroughfare.

The board voted to recommend the paving of the old Chillicothe road east of Greenlawn cemetery; Gray street from Eleventh to Fourteenth street; Norfolk street from Gallia to the Terminals; Walnut street from Norfolk street east through Buck & Snyder's addition; Park avenue (with hillside paver brick); Hubert Road from Gallia pike to Seventeenth street.

The board also voted to recommend the extension of the flood wall from Chillicothe street over Mill street to the east side of Offshore with a crosswalk to Third and Offshore streets, with the necessary driveways and flood pumps, and have the necessary plans and estimate ready by the next council meeting. The engineer at the same time was directed to continue the surveys farther eastward so that it would be ready whenever council called for it. It was suggested that all dirt excavated be thrown to the north side to be used as a back fill or terrace, though the engineer said his plans contemplated strengthening the wall which he said would cost comparatively more between Union and Chillicothe street, than the wall along the ridge east of the Dawson place.

Service Director Gergens was authorized to secure 90 day options on the Real Flow and otherwise look after the matter of rights of way.

It was decided to await the arrival and approval of the state board of health's engineer before proceeding further with the proposed lawson Run trunk sewer and to anxiously await the council fire committee's report on the proposed motorization of the fire department.

Engineer Wilhelm reported that the recent high water had undermined the Wendelken warehouse on the west side of Scioto street and it was now next to impossible to restore the flood wall there without an extremely great cost to the city. He suggested that the city might better abandon that end, acquire the property, convert it into a park, protect the bank by planting willows and run the flood wall through the first alley east of Scioto street. It was decided to continue with the refilling there and leave the matter of rebuilding the flood wall for some future time.

The matter of curb and gutter changes on the Gallia pike improvement was left to the discretion of the engineer and service director.

The mayor suggested that the service director ascertain if he had authority to force the removal back from off the city property line the several houses on Second street west of Massie to provide a good and wide approach for the new bridge. He said they were there by sufferance.

The mayor suggested that the service director ascertain if he had authority to force the removal back from off the city property line the several houses on Second street west of Massie to provide a good and wide approach for the new bridge. He said they were there by sufferance.

City Plumbing Inspector Arthur Hutton's suggestion that Charles Grassman be permitted to tap into the Stockum sewer to relieve vault conditions at Ninth and Offshore streets was sanctioned.

Upon the mayor's suggestion the mayor decided to meet regularly every Monday afternoon at one o'clock to take up matters before it, believing the plan will have a good and healthy effect.

The board accepted an invitation extended through Mr. Gergens to visit and inspect the newly remodeled headquarters of the Associated Charities which institution he said was moving the city considerable money through its medicine dispensary.

Cleaned Up On Chillicothe

A coking main it was learned Monday was pulled off between Waverly and Chillicothe Saturday night. It was reported that Portsmouth and Waverly sports cleaned up on the Chillicothe contingent.

C. & O. Derailment

A west-bound C. & O. freight train derailed three cars at Foster, Ky. Sunday morning and traffic was held up on the Cincinnati division for almost four hours. No. 8, due here at 11:15 a. m. Sunday, was four hours late, reaching South Portsmouth on account of the wreck. A broken flange, it was stated, caused the derailment.

Fireman Hurt

Thomas Clark, N. & W. fireman of this city, had his head slightly injured Monday. While going through Diggins tunnel he leaned out the cab window and his head came in contact with false work used in lining the tunnel. He was on extra freight 455.

Salesman Leaves

J. Vonderembse, of Eleventh street, left Sunday night on an extended trip through Virginia and West Virginia as traveling salesman for the Selby Shoe company.

Attorney Frank Moulton returned Monday from Cincinnati, where he left Mrs. Moulton recovering nicely from her recent illness. She is a patient in the Bethesda hospital.

J. M. BROOKE, M. D.
Diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat
Glasses expertly fitted.
721 Second St. Portsmouth, O.
Phone 1289 X
Every day except Saturday

You can have your good times over again
WITH A KODAK FROM FOWLER'S
717 Second Street

The New Sun Tonight
8:15

THE BARRETT PLAYERS PRESENT
"THE THIRD DEGREE"

NEXT ATTRACTION "FENA RIVERS"
Prices: 10, 20, 30 and 50c | Bode's Orchestra

Adjudged Insane

An affidavit in lunacy was filed in probate court Monday against Eliza Walk, who lives at the corner of Eleventh and Findlay streets. She was adjudged insane Monday afternoon, and will be taken to the Athens hospital Tuesday morning.

Hartley Will Filed Monday

The will of Eli Hartley, deceased, late of Wheelersburg, was filed in probate court Monday. The estate, outside of two bequests of $500 each to Anna Lucy Partridge and Frances H. Haines, is bequeathed to the widow, Lucy Hartley, who is also nominated as executrix. Upon her death, the estate is to be divided equally among the two heirs named above and Mrs. Eliza Dunn.

House Appraised

The H. P. Thompson home, at 803 Findlay street, was appraised at $8500 by John Jones, Wells A. Hutchins and George E. Krieger, a committee selected by Sheriff Smith, Monday morning. The property is to be sold to satisfy a judgment against H. P. and Matthew Thompson in favor of Geo. G. Green.

Attorney Horace Small was able to see at his office Monday after a few days' illness with the grip.

Ralph Thomas Home

Ralph Thomas rounded in Saturday night from a trip through the east in the interest of the Barend Manufacturing Co., of Buffalo, N. Y.

NOTED EDITOR ON DEATH BED

Kansas City, Mo.—There was little change today in the condition of William Rockhill Nelson, editor of the Kansas City Star, his physicians announced. Mr. Nelson has been confined to his home for several months, and except for brief intervals, has been unconscious since last Friday, when his condition suddenly became worse.

28 INDIANA POLITICIANS GO ON TRIAL

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Twenty-eight Democratic and Progressive politicians of Terre Haute were placed on trial before Judge A. B. Anderson in United States district court here today, charged with conspiring to corrupt the elections in Terre Haute last November.

CHEAP RATE TO EUROPE

London, March 8.—Official announcement was made today by the Cunard line that second class passage across the Atlantic has been reduced to 10 pound sterling ($50) on all vessels of that line including the Lusitania.

Admitted To Probate

The will of M. J. Beard, late of Valley township, was admitted to probate by Judge Beatty Monday afternoon.

Grum Locked Up

E. J. Crum was locked up for satekeeping at the city prison upon request of his wife Monday. He has been drinking heavily.

Charges Liquor Board Halted Prosecutions

Columbus, March 8.—Prosecutions of Cleveland resort keepers by orders of the state liquor licensing board last May, according to a statement filed with Gov. Willis today by Barney Doran, of out state licenses were prevented.

CARRANZA REFUSES TO HEED WARNING

Washington, March 8.—Secretary Bryan stated late today he had received notice from Gen. Carranza confirming reports that Mexico City would be evacuated and that diplomatic corps had decided to remain in Mexico City.

HEAD OF U. S. ARMY ON OVERLAND TRIP TO PACIFY INDIANS

Denver, Col., March 8.—Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, planned, early today, to begin a 120 mile overland journey into the desert country of Southeastern Utah, in search of Tso-No-Gat, a Pinte Indian, wanted by the federal authorities on a charge of murder. Tso-No-Gat is being aided in his efforts to resist capture by his father, "Old Poik," and a band of renegade Indians, who are thought to be entrenched a few miles southwest of Bluff, Utah.

The purpose of General Scott's journey from Washington is to seek out the fugitives, and through assurances of fair treatment, induce the surrender of Tso-No-Gat to the federal authorities.

ANOTHER BAD FIRE AT EDISON'S PLANT

West Orange, N. J., March 8.—Thomas Edison at work in his laboratory after midnight today, discovered a fire in one of the buildings of his great plant here and summoned the firemen in time to prevent what might have been a serious loss. The fire practically destroyed a building where the most valuable phonograph records were stored, but most of the records, which were in a concrete vault were saved.

Lecture Course

The Sciotoville High School lecture course will be brought to a close Tuesday evening with Prof. C. L. Martzoff of Athens, O., speaking on the subject "The True Aristocracy." The lectures have been held in the Sciotoville M. E. church.

Goes To Columbus

Representative W. R. Sprague returned to Columbus Monday. Senator W. D. Tompkins will not go to the Capital City until Wednesday as he remained in the city to attend the last rites of the late H. S. Grimes.

Fred Dever Named

Fred Dever was appointed in probate court Monday as guardian of Ida Dever, 16, and Margaret Dever, 14, minor children of William Dever. He gave bond in the sum of $100.

HAVERHILL

Mrs. G. W. Franks entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Ohio Baptist church on Thursday afternoon. After the business session and program she served delicious peach cream, cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and daughter, Marion, of Fronton, came Saturday to visit over Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ault.

Mrs. Raymond Rucker and children, of Butler, Ky., were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbons, from Thursday till Monday, when they went to McDermott to visit her sister, Mrs. Robert Br'er Williams. "Charley hex been klivered" a multitude of sinners sin long time," said Br'er Williams, "na' dis raggedy ole coat o' mine makes me think it's bout time for charity ter sit round ter do righteous."—Atlanta Constitution.

OBITUARY

Charles Taylor Funeral

The funeral of Charles Taylor, of Lynn, was held Sunday from the home with Rev. A. E. Elser in charge. Members of the Red Men's lodge of Lynn attended in a body. Burial was made in the Wheelersburg cemetery.

Capt. Hall

Word reached Portsmouth Monday of the death of Captain Aaron Bigelow Hall, oldest living Odd Fellow and river captain, which occurred at St. Louis Monday morning. He was born near this city, but has no living relatives here now. Old river men remember Captain Hall when he boated on the Barrett Line of Cincinnati, his last visit to this city being about four years ago. He was in the neighborhood of ninety years old at that time.

Mrs. Samuel Hibben

Mrs. Samuel Hibben, aged resident of Waverly, died early Sunday morning, after a protracted illness with a complication of diseases, which had rendered her an invalid for several months. Her husband, a prominent farmer of Pike county, preceded her to the grave about one year ago. She was the mother of several children, all of whom survive her. J. S. Senator C. P. Lawman, of Bear Creek, is a brother of the deceased.

Fred Duis

Fred Duis, a well known farmer of Franklin Furnace passed away at his home there Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock. He had been ill for sometime with rheumatism, but heart trouble was the primary cause of death.

Roy E. Lynn
UNDERTAKER AND Funeral Director
Auto Ambulance
Service
BOTH PHONES 11

F. C. Daehler Co.
Funeral Directors
AND Undertakers
BOTH PHONES
Automobile Ambulance Service

GEORGE PFEIFFER
Undertaker & Funeral Director
Ladies Assistant
Home Phone 211. Bell Phone 311 R.
728 Chillicothe St.

The Anderson Bros. Co.

Wish to announce their annual Spring Opening

Thursday evening, March Eleventh

Seven o'clock till Nine

And all day Friday, March 12

Music furnished by

Prof. Mastropaulo and his Orchestra

Everybody cordially invited

BRADY THEATRE

Variety of pictures daily
Perfect Projection
Good Music

THE ROSARY

Crystal
Jade
Gibby
Masolino
Pearl
Emerald
Amethyst
Amber
Garnet
Jet Black

Albert Zoellner
Jeweler
Third and Chillicothe

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and give all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down bile acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxins called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, aches and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoon in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is used to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the root of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.